By play (n) play at intervals not connected with the main story of the play [illegible]

By product (n) product formed in the making process of something else. [illegible], [illegible]

Byre (n) Cowshed. Cow house [illegible], [illegible]

By road (n) ~~a~~ road not much used, retired side road [illegible].

Bystander (n) a looker on. one who stands near. [illegible] [illegible]. spectator, mere a looker on.

Bystreet (n) a obscure street.

By way (n) a private, secluded or obscure way.

Byword (n) a common saying, proverb, a term of reproach [illegible] [illegible]. an object of ridicule. [illegible] an object of common talk)

By the bye (s) or by the way (ad) in passing. [illegible] [illegible], [illegible]

By work (n) a work done during leisure time, work done in addition to regular work [illegible].

By election (n) elections made necessary by the death, resignation or removal of a member during the life time of parliament.

. C .

C = Roman letter = 100

Cab (n) a horse drawn or motor driven Carriage for hire. [illegible]. part of a railway engine or lorry for the driver.

~~Cab [illegible]~~

Cabal (n) a secret society } a party of secret plotters. [illegible]. intrigue, secret plan [illegible]. secret design [illegible].

Cabala (n) [illegible]

Caballero (n) ~~[illegible]~~ a Spanish gentleman

Cabaret (n) a restaurant with variety entertainments like music and singing etc. a tavern.

Cabbage (n) a Kind of Vegetable with thick closed leaves [illegible]

Cabin (n) a small room in a ship or airplane. [illegible]. a hut or cottage [illegible]

Cabinet (n) a case a chest with drawers or shelves. [illegible]. a private Council of select ministers. a select inner Council of ministers [illegible].

Cabinet maker (n) one who makes furniture [illegible].

Cable (n) thick strong rope [illegible], undersea water wire [illegible]. telegraphic wire message by undersea wire [illegible]. a rope of chain.

Cablegram (n) message by undersea wire. [illegible]

Cabman (n) driver of a Cab

Cabotage (n) Coasting trade [illegible].

Caboose (n) ship's kitchen, hut. [illegible]

Cacao (n) the seeds from which cocoa & chocolate are made.

Cachet (n) a seal, a capsule enclosing medicine.

Cachinnation (n) loud laugh. [illegible]

Cackle (n) cry of a goose or hen [illegible] (v.i.) make clucking noise [illegible]

Cacography (n) bad handwriting or wrong spelling. [illegible]

Cacology (n) bad pronunciation [illegible]

Cacophony (n) discord of sounds [illegible] unpleasant sound [illegible]

Cacotrophy (n) bad nourishment [illegible]

Cactus (n) a tropical plant with fleshy & prickly leaves. [illegible]

Cad (n) a low mannered mean fellow. [illegible]

Ca bus conductor, errand runner, [illegible]

Cadaver (n) corpse [illegible]

Cadaverous (a) [illegible], corpse like [illegible] pale & sickly [illegible]

Caddie (n) a golfer's attendant who carries the clubs.

caddy (n) a chest, a packet of tea.

Cade (n) a barrel or cask [illegible], pet lamb. [illegible]

[illegible] - sweet or pleasant

Cadence (n) rise & fall of voice as in music. [illegible] rhythm [illegible] fall of voice at the end of a sentence

Cadet (n) a military or naval student [illegible]

~~Cadjan (n) leaf of the palm tree. [illegible]~~

Cadge (v.t.&i.) to go about begging [illegible]

Cadger (n) a hawker. [illegible]

Cadjan (n) the leaf of a palm tree. [illegible]

Cadre (n) nucleus, framework. [illegible], scheme [illegible] standing army [illegible]

[illegible]

Cafe (n) a coffee house, restaurant [illegible]

Cage (n) a framework for keeping in birds or animals [illegible], a prison cell [illegible], a lift used in mines. [illegible]

Caged (p.a) put in a cage, imprisoned. [illegible]

Cairn (n) a heap of stones, [illegible]

Caitiff (n) a mean fellow [illegible] a low fellow. [illegible]

Cajole (v.t) persuade by flattery [illegible], coax by flattery

Cajolery (n) coaxing, persuasive talk, flattery [illegible]

Cake (n) sweet bread prepared of flour, butter, egg etc [illegible] (2) anything pressed flat & shaped (a cake of soap)

Calabash (n) a melon like fruit the hard shell of which is used for carrying water, [illegible]

Caladium (n) [illegible].

Calamitous (a) disastrous, greatly unfortunate. [illegible]

Calamity (n) great misfortune, disaster [illegible]

x x x Calash (n) a hooded Carriage of [illegible] a carriage with a folding top.

Calcareous (a) Containing lime. [illegible]

x x x Calamus (n) sweet flag [illegible], the reed formerly used by ancients for writing x Calcination (n) [illegible].

Calcine (v.t) to burn or to powder, reduce to a Calx by the action of heat [illegible]

x Calcification (n) [illegible]

Calcium (n) the metal present in lime, chalk etc. and [illegible] the metallic basis of lime.

Calculable (a) capable of being counted or ascertained. [illegible]

Calculate (v.t) to Count [illegible]. to reckon.

Calculating (a) thinking selfishly [illegible] farsighted, guarded

Calculation (n) reckoning [illegible]

Calculus (n) a system of calculation in mathematics. [illegible] (2) a diseased stone like concretion in parts of the body esp. in bladder. [illegible]

Caldron (n) Cauldron, a huge kettle or boiling vessel [illegible]

Calendar (n) a table or list of days, weeks, months etc of a particular year, almanac [illegible]

Calender (n.t) a machine for polishing, [illegible] clothes. a cloth presser, press for [illegible]

Calf (n) the young of a cow and other animals and elephant, [illegible]. the fleshy part of the back of the leg below the knee. [illegible]

Calibration (n) [illegible]

Calibre (n) internal diameter of a gun [illegible] the diameter of the bore of firearms with gun or anything (2) capacity or mental strength. [illegible] } size, strength Calico (n) a kind of Cotton cloth.

Calcinine (n) [illegible]

Call (v.t) to summon [illegible]. to pay a visit [illegible]

Callipers (n) [illegible] compass

Caller (n) visitor or [illegible]

Calligraphy (n) beautiful handwriting [illegible] } penmanship, art of writing

Caligraph (n) a writing machine.

Calling (n) employment or profession, job [illegible], vocation

Calisthenics (n) beautiful body building light exercise [illegible]

Callous (a) hard hearted. unfeeling [illegible]

Callousness (n) hard hearted — unfeeling [illegible]

Callow (a) not feathered, unfledged [illegible] inexperienced [illegible]

Calm (a) peaceful, quiet. [illegible] (v.t) to pacify [illegible].

Calmly (ad) quietly [illegible]

Calmness (n) quietness [illegible]

× Calorimeter (n) [illegible]

Calmy (a) Calm, peaceful [illegible]

Calomel (n) a compound of chlorine & mercury used as a medicine [illegible]

Calorie (n) a unit of measuring ~~[illegible]~~ heat value of food [illegible]. heat [illegible]

[illegible] (calorimeter) [illegible]

Calumniate (v.t) to defame [illegible]

Calumny (n) slander [illegible]

Calve (v.t) to bring forth calf [illegible]

Calx (n) powder left of a metal when burnt or heated long. [illegible]

Calyx (n) the outer leafs like covering of a flower [illegible] (flower cup)

Cambric (n) fine linen or cotton cloth. [illegible]

Came (v.i) reached [illegible]

Camel (n) a long necked humped animal of the desert [illegible]

Cameleopard (n) an African animal with long neck & long legs and short body, giraffee [illegible]

Cameo (n) a kind of precious stone carved in relief. [illegible]

Camera (n) a photo taking apparatus & machine. [illegible] (2) secret chamber [illegible]

Camouflage (v.t) to deceive or disguise or trick an enemy. [illegible] (n) a trick to deceive an enemy, pretension, deception. [illegible]

[illegible]

95

Camp (n) a place where troops pitch their tents; any temporary quarters [illegible]. military quarters [illegible], party [illegible] (opposite camp [illegible])

Campaign (n) organized work for a special purpose [illegible]. battle of [illegible] military operation

Campaigner (n) a tried soldier. [illegible]

Campanile (n) a bell-tower [illegible]

Camphene (n) camphor [illegible]

Camphor (n) a strong smelling, white volatile substance (used for medicinal purpose) [illegible] (a solid substance [illegible])

Camphorated (a) containing camphor. [illegible]

Campus (n) college or university playgrounds or maidan. [illegible] (College or university grounds)

Can (v) to be able, to do [illegible]; to pack fruits in tins for preserving.

Can (n) a small tin container for liquids preserving fruits etc [illegible] a vessel for holding liquid Canal (n) an artificial or manmade water course, [illegible] an artificial waterway [illegible].

Canard (n) an untrue report [illegible] a false story.

Canary (n) a yellow singing bird of Canary islands. a kind of wine.

Cancel (v.t) to remove, erase, [illegible]

Cancer (n) a deadly human disease which eats away the affected part [illegible] fourth sign of the Zodiac. [illegible] candelabrum (n) a frame for branching lights

Candid (a) open hearted, frank, saying just what one thinks [illegible]. [illegible] frank, ingenuous

Candidate (n) applicant. one who tries for a post or enters for an examination [illegible] one who offers himself.

Candidature. [illegible]

Candle (n) a wax-cylinder with a wick inside for lighting [illegible].

Candle power (n) the amount of light given by a candle, a unit for measuring light. [illegible]

Candle stick (n) a holder for a candle. a hollow holder for a candle Candlemas (n) 2nd Feb. on which special services are held in Catholic churches.

Candle stick (n) a hollow holder for a candle.

Candour (n) open mindedness, frankness. [illegible]

Candy (n) crystallized sugarcane juice [illegible]. a sweetmeat [illegible]. a weight of [illegible] lbs. [illegible]

Cane (n) stem of a kind of reed used for walking stick [illegible].

Canine (a) pertaining to dog [illegible] relating to the dog.

Canine tooth (n) the four sharp pointed teeth one on each side of the upper & lower jaws. [illegible]

Canister (n) a small wooden or metal box for tea, shot etc [illegible] a box of metal [illegible]

Canker (n) ulcer of the mouth. [illegible], a disease of plants and trees [illegible] anything that corrupts

Cannibal (n) a person eating human flesh. [illegible] an animal eating its own kind.

Cannibalism (n) the habit of eating human flesh. [illegible]

Cannon (n) a kind of great gun [illegible]

Canine teeth [illegible]

Cannonade (v.t) fire with great gun. bombard. [illegible] (n) continued fire with cannon [illegible]. an attack with cannon

Canny (a) knowing, clever [illegible]. shrewd. cautious, careful.

Canoe (n) a small boat dug out of a trunk or one made of leather or bark of trees. [illegible] a small dugout boat

Canon (n) law or order [illegible], church law [illegible]. a standard to judge a thing. [illegible] a general rule; the books of the Bible accepted as standard, a list of saints. priest with duties in a cathedral a church dignitary [illegible]

Canonical (a) regular, ecclesiastical. according to Canon.

Canonize (v.t) admit or declare as a Saint [illegible] to enroll among the saints.

Canopy (n) a curtain or covering hung over a above a bed throne etc. [illegible]. an ornamental covering

Canon law (n) a church law

Cant (n) insincere talk. [illegible] (2) talk of a special class of people. [illegible] a hypocritical speech

Can't = Cannot.

Cantankerous (a) eager to quarrel [illegible] quarrelsome, cross [illegible] perverse

Canteen (n) a refreshment stall [illegible] a soldier's tavern, a soldier's liquor vessel.

Canter (n) an easy gallop. [illegible]
a slow

~~Canto (n)~~ Canticle (n) a holy song, short poem. a church song.
used in church service.

Canto (n) part or division of a long poem. [illegible] division of a poem.

Canton (n) division of a county or a district. division of a province.

Cantonment (n) military station [illegible] a camping place for troops or soldiers.
troops' quarters.

Cantor (n) leader of singing in a church.

Cantrip (n) wild antic.

Canvas (n) coarse cloth of strong cotton, hemp etc [illegible] Canvas cloth Canvass (v.t) to ask for support, solicit votes [illegible] try to get the support of go round asking support & votes

Canyon (n) a deep valley with a river flowing through it. [illegible]

Caoutchouc (n). India rubber

Cap (n) a brimless hat, cover, top. [illegible]

Capability (n) ability to do a thing [illegible]

Capable (a) having skill to do, efficient [illegible] suitable for, fitted for possessing ability.

Capacious (a) wide, roomy, extensive. [illegible]
Capacity (n) [illegible] having capacity of holding.

Cap-a-pie. (adv) from head to foot, completely. [illegible] volume [illegible]

Caparison (n) decorative trappings of a horse or elephant [illegible]

Cape (n) a narrow piece of land jutting out into the sea [illegible].
a point of land.
a shoulder covering.

Caper (v.i) to gambol, to leap about, dance, leap playfully, skip. [illegible] skip around

Capillary (a) very small, hair-like [illegible] with the fineness of hair.

[illegible]

Capillarity [illegible]

Capillary tube (n) a tube with a very small hole. [illegible]

Capital (a) chief [illegible] principal [illegible]. (n) chief town [illegible]. the principal invested [illegible] money invested.

[illegible]

Capitalism (n) private ownership of business, trade etc. [illegible] (the economic system which gives power to the capitalist, system whereby which business is administered by private funds.

Capitalist (n) one who owns large amount of money [illegible] one who owns capital.

Capitalize (v.t) convert or change into capital [illegible]

Capitation [illegible]

Capitol (n) ancient Roman temple [illegible]. a house of legislature [illegible] The temple of Jupiter at Rome. [illegible]

Capitulate (v.i) surrender on terms, to yield. [illegible]

Capitulation (n) surrendering on terms [illegible] yielding

Capon (n) a fattened young cock [illegible] a young castrated cock.

Caprice (n) sudden fancy, sudden change of mind without reason. [illegible] fickleness. changefulness, mind

Capricious (a) changing often, taking sudden fancies. [illegible] fickle minded, changeable. [illegible]

Capricorn (n) tenth ([illegible]) of the Zodiac [illegible] zodiac signs.

Capsicum (n) cayenne pepper [illegible].

Capsize (v.t) turn upside down, to be upset, upset, overturn [illegible] (the boat capsized [illegible])

Capstan (n) a contrivance to raise anchors or for winding cable [illegible].

Capsule (n) seed case [illegible] small soft container or tube for medicine. [illegible] a metal top for bottle. [illegible].

Captain (n) head, chief officer or leader of a group. [illegible]

Caption (n) heading. [illegible]

Captious (a) ready or eager to find fault with. critical. fault-finding [illegible] ready to take offence, peevish [illegible]

Captivate (v.t) charm, attract [illegible] fascinate, subdue.

Captivating (a) attracting, charming [illegible].

Captive (n) a person taken prisoner (a prisoner) [illegible]

Captivity (n) the state of being a prisoner. [illegible] imprisonment

Captor (n) one who takes another thing as a prisoner. [illegible]

Capture (v.t) to take one as a prisoner, [illegible]; arrest, to take by force. [illegible] (n) person or thing captured [illegible]

Car (n) a motor vehicle. [illegible]. any carriage on wheels [illegible] for an old time vehicle, chariot [illegible]

Car(a)line (n) a kind of small [illegible]

Carafe (n) a glass water-bottle. [illegible] a water bottle.

① Caramel (n) burnt sugar used as a colouring matter!

Caranx Carangidae [illegible]

X Carat (n) a unit used for measuring the weight of gold or precious stones [illegible]. a measure of force or weight [illegible]. purity of gold [illegible] measure of fineness [illegible]

② X Caramel (n) melted brown sugar, a kind of chocolate sugar or a butter [illegible]

Caravan (n) a company of travellers. a company of people or merchants travelling in company for safety esp. through across a desert [illegible]; (2) a house on wheels, a covered carriage

Caravansary (n) serai an inn for caravans. [illegible] a rude wayside inn

Caravel (n) carvel, a small kind of light boat ship

Caraway (n) an aromatic seed used as medicine & condiment [illegible]

Carbide (n) a compound of carbon with another element.

Carbine (n) a short light gun a short musket.

Carbolic (n) a disinfectant acid chemical

Carbohydrate (n) a compound of carbon, hydrogen & oxygen, [illegible]

Carbolic acid (n) [illegible]

Carbon (n) charcoal [illegible] a chemical element found in all organic substances [illegible]

Carbonate (n) a salt of carbonic acid [illegible]

Carbonic acid (n) a weak acid [illegible]

Carbonize (v.t) convert into carbon

Carbuncle (n) a precious stone of deep red colour. [illegible] (2) a malignant tumour; a large boil [illegible]

Carburetter (n) part of a motor-car engine which changes petrol into vapour.

(carcase)
Carcass (n) dead body of an animal [illegible], [illegible]

Card (n) thick kind of paper [illegible]. a piece of thick paper on which name and address of a person is written. [illegible] playing card [illegible], a tool for combing wool or flax [illegible] a kind of [illegible]

Cardamom (n) [illegible]

Cardia (n) heart ഹൃദയം.

Cardiac (a) having to do with the heart pertaining to the heart
ഹൃദയസംബന്ധമായ. (n) a medicine that stimulates the heart. a heart stimulant ഹൃദയ[illegible]

Cardigan (n) a knitted woollen jacket. [illegible]

Cardinal (a) very important, chief, essential. (a) of a deep red colour [illegible] (n) the Pope's representative [illegible]
a dignitary of the church of Rome, an American bird

Cardinal points (n) the chief points of a compass N. S. E & W.

Cardinal Virtues (n) justice, prudence, temperance, fortitude.
ന്യായം, വിവേകം, മിതത്വം, ധൈര്യം.

Care (n) mental trouble, anxiety [illegible], protection [illegible], responsibility.

Career (n) profession [illegible]. (n) life history [illegible]. gallop [illegible]

Careful (a) watchful, attentive ശ്രദ്ധയുള്ള [illegible]

Careless (a) heedless, inattentive [illegible]

Caress (v.t) fondle [illegible]. embrace [illegible]

a sign denoting a word left out
Caret (n) a sign of omission, mark (v) [illegible] showing an insertion.

Cargo (n) goods in a ship carries [illegible] freight [illegible]

Caribou (n) N. American deer [illegible]

an exaggerated likeness Caricature (n) a laughable picture of a person or description of a person or thing. [illegible]; [illegible].

or decay of bone
Caries (n) rottenness, decay of teeth [illegible], [illegible] decayed bone Carious (a) decayed.

Carminative (n) a medicine for wind-colic [illegible]; a medicine for expelling flatulence (a) expelling wind

Carmine (a) deep red [illegible]. (n) a red pigment. [illegible], blood.

Carnage (n) slaughter, butchery, killing many at a time [illegible], bloodshed. [illegible]

Carnal (a) of the flesh, bodily, [illegible], sensual, sexual [illegible], sinful [illegible].

Carnality (n) sensuality [illegible] ([illegible])

Carnation (n) a sweet smelling garden flower [illegible] flesh colour [illegible].

an open air revelry.
Carnival (n) riotous feasting or merriment. [illegible]
a public merrymaking & feast.
Carnivore (n) a flesh-eating animal [illegible]
Carnivorous (a) flesh eating [illegible]
Carol (n) a song of joy or praise [illegible] x Carouse (v.i) to drink freely & make merry [illegible] to revel.
x Carousal (n) a noisy drinking revel/bout. [illegible]
a fresh-water fish
Carp (n) a fresh-water fish [illegible]
(v.i) to find fault with. [illegible]
Carpel (n) [illegible]
Carpenter (n) a professional worker in wood. [illegible] a worker in wood for buildings.
Carpentry (n) working in wood [illegible], trade or work of a carpenter.
Carpet (n) Thick fabric for covering floors. [illegible]
Carping (a) fault-finding [illegible]
Carpus (n) wrist. [illegible]
Carriage (n) a vehicle for [illegible] mode of walk [illegible] behaviour
Carriageable (a) that can be ~~conveyed~~ conveyed in a carriage. [illegible]
Carrier (n) a messenger [illegible] one who carries things for hire, porter [illegible]. a

(1) a seat part behind a cycle, carrier for carrying things. [illegible]
Carrion (n) dead and decaying body or flesh of animals. [illegible] Carrion (a) relating to decaying dead decaying ~~dead~~ animal body or flesh [illegible] (2) feeding on carrion [illegible] putrid or decaying flesh.
edible
Carry (v.t)
Carrot (n) yellow orange-red root of a plant. [illegible]
Carry (v.t) to take away, convey [illegible] (2) behave [illegible]
Cart (n) a two wheeled vehicle for carrying heavy goods [illegible] (v.t) to convey put [illegible] a cart or carry in a cart. [illegible]
Cartage (n) the act of carrying in a cart or the price paid for carrying a thing. [illegible]
Carte-blanche (n) freedom of action. [illegible], a blank paper signed to be filled up at the recipient's pleasure, Cartel (n) challenge, agreement for exchange of prisoners, a card with writing on it, a political coalition or bloc, a combination of firms for certain purposes esp. esp. to keep up prices & kill competition.

Cartilage (n) elastic substance covering the joints, gristle, [illegible], [illegible]
[illegible]

Cartography (n) map-making [illegible], [illegible]
Cartography (n) map-making.

Cartomancy (n) fortelling by playing cards. [illegible]

Carton (n) Thin pasteboard box, [illegible]

Cartoon (n) a comic drawing or representation of current politics, events etc. [illegible] (a humorous sketch or illustration of current events or politics. a large sketch or design.

Cartridge (n) a case for containing charge for a gun shell holding a bullet [illegible] a paper containing charge for a gun. [illegible]

Carve (v.t) cut into forms figures, or engrave [illegible]. cut into slices or pieces. [illegible]

Carver (n) one who carves. [illegible],

Carving (n) [illegible]

Cascade (n) water fall [illegible], [illegible]

Case (n) a box or covering [illegible], a law suit [illegible]. a form in the inflection of nouns [illegible]

Casein (n) the solid part of milk of which cheese is made, the curd of milk.

Casement (n) frame of a window, a window that opens on hinges. [illegible]. curtain hung from a window sash. [illegible]

Cash (n) coins or notes, money [illegible]. (v.t) to turn into or exchange for money [illegible]

Cashier (n) treasurer. cash keeper a person employed to deal in cash, [illegible]. (v) dismiss.

Cashew (n) a tropical spreading tree. [illegible]

Cashew nut (n) the edible nut or kernel of the cashew tree. [illegible]

Cashmere (n) a soft woollen cloth.

Casino (n) a public dancing hall [illegible], gambling hall. a public assembly room.

Cask (n) a hooped wooden keg, barrel [illegible]. a small barrel

Casket (n) a small jewel box [illegible], a small case

Casque (n) a cover for the head, helmet. [illegible], [illegible]

Cassava (n) tapioca [illegible]

Cassia (n) a coarse kind of cinnamon [illegible]

x Cassino (n) a game at cards

Cassock (n) a priest's long loose robe. [illegible] a black clerical robe

x Casserole (n) a stew pan [illegible]

Cassowary (n) a running bird resembling the ostrich.

Cast (v.t) to throw, fling, [illegible]. to form into a shape by pouring molten liquid into a mould [illegible] to shed, to remove [illegible] to abandon [illegible]

Cast (n) mould [illegible], [illegible], a chorus in a play. [illegible], [illegible], thing shaped in a mould. [illegible], earth thrown up by a worm. [illegible]

Castanet (n) a clapper, to beat time [illegible]

× Cast iron (n) iron melted, cast into lumps or rolled out into bars [illegible].

?? -

× Castaway (n) a shipwrecked or abandoned, deserted person. [illegible] [illegible]. outcast [illegible]

Caste (n) a hereditary class [illegible], [illegible]. class distinction

~~Castigate (v.t) to punish. [illegible]~~

~~[illegible]~~

~~Castigation (n) punishment [illegible]~~

~~Cast iron (n) iron formed in moulds. [illegible].~~

~~Castle (n)~~

~~Castellan (n)~~

Castellan (n) governor or captain of a castle [illegible]

Castellated (a) fortified, having ~~[illegible]~~ towers, battlements like a castle.

Castigate (v.t) to punish, beat, chastise, to scold, thrash. [illegible], [illegible]

Castigation (n) chastisement [illegible], [illegible]

?? Casting vote (n) a chairman's vote deciding, vote when other votes are equal.

Cast iron (n) iron formed in moulds [illegible].

Castle (n) fortress, a fortified mansion, [illegible], [illegible], a grand building. [illegible], house of a nobleman or prince [illegible]. [illegible].

Castle in the air [illegible]. [illegible].

Castor (n) a dish with sprinkler top, [illegible], an oil seed. [illegible], [illegible].

Castor oil (n) oil extracted from castor seeds [illegible]

Castrate (v.t) to remove the testicles, geld [illegible], [illegible]. [illegible] deprive of generating power

Castration (n) gelding [illegible]

Casual (a) happening by chance, occasional, accidental, [illegible]. [illegible]

Casually (ad) by chance, accidentally [illegible]

Casualty (n) accident, disaster [illegible], [illegible]. no. killed or wounded in a war or accident [illegible], [illegible]

Casuarina (n) a tree of the birch family with pointed leaves [illegible] whip tree, beefwood [illegible].

Casuist (n) a fallacious reasoner [illegible]

Casuistry (n) mistaken reasoning in argument [illegible]

Cat (n) a common household domestic animal, [illegible], [illegible]

Cataclysm (n) a sudden great change in politics, society or nature, any upheaval. flood, [illegible]. [illegible] deluge, revolution.

Catacomb (n) an underground cave for burial [illegible]. underground store room. [illegible]. a subterranean burial ground

Catalectic (a) incomplete [illegible]

Catalepsy (n) a state of insensibility in which the body is in a rigid condition [illegible]. an atrophy of limbs

cata

Catalogue (n) an orderly prepared (a list) list of books, names &c. [illegible]. (v.t) to make a list [illegible], describe [illegible].

Catamenia (n) menstrual discharge. [illegible]

Cataplasm (n) a poultice, a plaster. [illegible].

Catapult (n) a 'V' shaped stick (forked stick) with elastic leather strips attached to it for shooting stones or such like things. ~~[illegible]~~ Sling [illegible]. an ancient weapon for hurling or throwing large stones in warfare.

Cataract (n) a large waterfall [illegible]. an eye disease causing partial blindness. [illegible]

Catarrh (n) cold [illegible] ~~water~~ watery running of the nose due to cold. [illegible]. discharge of mucus.

Catastrophe (n) a great sudden disaster, [illegible], calamity; final event to climax of the action of a plot in a drama, [illegible].

Catastrophic (a)

Catch (v.t) to take hold of [illegible] seize, grasp. to clutch catchy (a) attractive, [illegible]

× Catechise (v.t) to teach by questions and answers. [illegible], to question [illegible]

× Catechism (n) a summary of questions and answers [illegible] ambiguous summary.

× Catching (a) attractive [illegible], spreading [illegible]:

× Catchment (n) area from which water flows into a lake or river [illegible]

× Catchy (a) attraction [illegible] easily understood [illegible]

× Catechise —

× Catechism —

Categorical (a) positive, unconditional. [illegible]

Categorically (adv) absolutely

Category (n) kind, class, order [illegible]

Catena (n) a connected series, [illegible]

Cater (v.i) to provide food, [illegible], to serve food [illegible]

Cateran (n) robber [illegible]
[illegible], [illegible]

Caterer (n) one who provides food or arranges it. [illegible]
[illegible], [illegible]
[illegible].

Caterpillar (n) moth or butterfly larva. [illegible] a grub that lives by eating leaves [illegible]. a hairy worm like [illegible].

[illegible]

Caterwaul (v.i) cry like a cat [illegible]
[illegible] cat - when in heat.

Catgut (n) dried intestines of the sheep, horse etc twisted into thread [illegible].
[illegible] string made from animal intestines

Catharsis (n) evacuation of the bowels. [illegible].

Cathartic (a) having the power of cleansing the bowels, purgative
[illegible]
[illegible] (n) a purgative medicine. [illegible]

Cathedral (n) the chief church of a diocese containing the bishop's throne [illegible]
a church to which a bishop is attached.

Catheter (n) a tube for removing urine from the bladder
[illegible]

Cathode (n) the negative pole of an electric battery current [illegible]

Catholic (a) universal, general, general [illegible] all broad minded [illegible].
(n) [illegible]

105

(n) a follower of the Roman church
[illegible]

Catholicism (n) broad mindedness
[illegible]. C. Religion

Catholicity (n) universality, broad mindedness. [illegible]
[illegible]

Cat's paw one who is a dupe. [cat mint: a [illegible]]

Cattle (n) ~~[illegible]~~ cows & bullocks, grass eating animals like oxen & cows, [illegible] live-stock. [illegible]
[illegible] animals of pasture. bovines

Caucus (n) a party clique or meeting [illegible]

Caudate (a) of the tail [illegible]

Caudron (n) Cauldron] a large kettle [illegible] vessel [illegible].

Caught.

~~Caud~~ Caul (n) a net covering for the head [illegible]

Cauliflower (n) a variety of cabbage a kind of cabbage.
with white flower like top or head [illegible]
Caulk [illegible]

Causal (a) relating to a cause or reason. [illegible]

Causality (n) relation of cause and the working of a cause effect [illegible]

Causation (n) causing. the bringing about an effect [illegible].

Causative (a) causal, acting as a cause [illegible]

Cause (n) reason, motive, that which produces an effect [illegible]. that by or through which something happens [illegible]. a law suit
[illegible]

× Causeway (n) a raised passage over a wet ground [illegible] a paved road or path a raised pathway

X Causerie (n) a gossip in a newspaper or magazine. [illegible] gossip.

Caustic (a) burning by chemical action [illegible]

x Cauterization (n) the act of burning with a piece of hot iron or caustic substance [illegible].

x Cautery (n) a burning piece of iron or [illegible]

Cauterise (v.t) to burn with a cautery [illegible]

Caution (n) warning [illegible], താക്കീത്, Care [illegible].

Cautious (a) Careful [illegible], wary.

Cautiously (adv) Carefully [illegible]

Cavalcade (n) a procession of persons on horseback. [illegible] one in attendance on a lady.

Cavalier (n) a Knight [illegible] (a) gay, warlike.

Cavalry (n) [illegible] soldiers on horseback. [illegible] a troop of horsemen. horse soldiers

Cave (n) a natural hollow place in a rock or earth. ഗുഹ, [illegible]

Cave dweller (n) Cave man, rude man who lived in ancient times in Cave. [illegible].

Caveat (n) a notice of warning. താക്കീത്.

Cavern (n) deep cave [illegible] a hollow in the ground

Cavernous (a) full of caverns, hollow. [illegible]

Cavil (v.i) to raise silly objections, to grumble over silly things. [illegible] make trifling objections.

Cavity (n) hole, hollow place [illegible].

Caw (v.i) cry like a crow. cry of Caw

Cayenne (n) a kind of pepper. [illegible]. a very pungent kind of red pepper [illegible]. red pepper

Cease (v.t) stop, put an end to. [illegible]

Ceaseless (a) incessant, without ceasing not stopping, continuous. [illegible].

Cedar (n) a large evergreen coniferous tree, [illegible]

Cede (v.t) give up to, yield. [illegible] grant [illegible]

Ceiling (n) The inner roof of a room. The inner surface of the covering of a room. [illegible], the inside upper covering of a room

Celebrant (n) the officiating priest. [illegible]

Celebrate (v.t) observe with pomp and ceremony. [illegible]

Celebrated (a) famous. [illegible]

Celebration (n) observance of some event with pomp. [illegible]

Celebrity (n) fame [illegible] renown, being a famous person. [illegible] an eminent person [illegible]

Celerity (n) quickness, [illegible] swiftness.

Celery (n) a kind of salad vegetable [illegible]

Celestial (a) heavenly [illegible] of the sky [illegible]

Celibacy (n) the state of remaining single or unmarried [illegible] unmarried state being single.

Celibate (a) unmarried [illegible] (n) a person who remains unmarried for life [illegible]

Cell (n) a small room. [illegible] [illegible] a unit of apparatus for producing electricity. [illegible] [illegible], a unit of living matter [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]

Cellar (n) underground store room [illegible] a room below the ground floor.

Celluloid (n) an ivory like substance used in making knife handles combs &c.

Cellulose (n) a substance got from cotton or wood pulp used in making artificial silk films &c. [illegible] a cohesive substance.

Cement (n) mortar of lime and clay. [illegible] (v.t) to join firmly [illegible]

Cemetery (n) burial ground, [illegible] burying ground.

Cenotaph (n) a monument for a dead person buried elsewhere or erected in a place other than he is buried. [illegible] a monument to one buried elsewhere

Cense (v.t) to [illegible] [illegible]

Censer (n) a pan or pot in which sweet smelling things are burnt. [illegible] [illegible]

Censor (n) one empowered to examine and suppress what is not appropriate to public moral.

Censorious (a) fault-finding [illegible] expressing censure.

Censure (n) blame, passing unfavourable criticism. [illegible]

Census (n) official counting of the people of a place with statistical details generally once in ten years. [illegible]

Cent (n) hundred [illegible], an American Coin worth about a half-penny.

Centaur (n) an imaginary animal creature half man half horse. [illegible] mythological monster, with a man's head & beast's body.

Centenarian (n) a person hundred years old [illegible]

Centenary (n) a period of hundred years, [illegible]. celebration of hundredth year of anything important [illegible]

Centennial (a) of the hundredth year [illegible]. happening once in a hundred years [illegible]. (n) a hundredth anniversary [illegible]

Centigrade (a) divided into hundred degrees [illegible]

Centimetre [illegible]

Centipede (n) a creature with many legs or as much as 100 legs [illegible]

Central (a) chief [illegible], belonging to or in the centre [illegible] middle. pertaining to the centre.

Centralization (n) gathering together [illegible]

Centralise (v. t) Concentrate at a centre, bring to a centre or collect together [illegible]

Centralised [illegible]

Centre (n) middle point [illegible] point [illegible]

Centralisation - [illegible]

Centre of gravity (n) [illegible]

Centre of concentration (n) [illegible]

Centrifugal (a) tending to fly away from the centre [illegible] moving away from the centre.

Centripetal (a) tending towards a centre [illegible] moving towards the centre

Centurion [illegible]

Centurion (n) a commander of 100 men. captain of a Roman hundred

Century (n) a hundred hundred years [illegible] cephalic (a) pertaining to the head.

Ceramic (a) pertaining to fine pottery. [illegible]

Ceramics (n) the art of making pots. [illegible]

Ceremonial [illegible]

Cereal (a) pertaining to corn [illegible]

Cereals (n) food grains. [illegible]

~~Cerebral (a) of the brain [illegible]~~

~~Ceremonials (n) frame clothes [illegible]~~

~~Ceremonial~~

Cerebellum (n) hinder brain back lower part of the brain [illegible]

Cerebral (a) of the brain [illegible]

Cerebration (n) working of the brain [illegible]

Cerebrum (n) the upper brain [illegible]

Cerements (n) grave clothes [illegible]

Ceremonial (a) according to ceremony, formal. [illegible] formal, ceremonious. [illegible] outward form.

Ceremony (n) observance [illegible] formal polite behaviour [illegible] a formal act or function

Certain (a) sure, having no doubt [illegible]

Certainly surely [illegible]

Certainty (n) undoubted fact [illegible] fixed state, sureness, doubtlessness

Certificate (n) a written testimony to the proof/truth of any fact [illegible] a written proof

Certify (v.t) to attest [illegible] make known, declare by writing

Certitude (n) certainty. [illegible] Certainty

Cerulean (a) sky-blue, sky-coloured [illegible] (Cerule) dark blue

Cerumen (n) ear-wax. [illegible]

Cervical (a) of the neck [illegible]

Cervine (a) of the deer [illegible]

Cess (n) tax, assessment. [illegible]

Cessation (n) stopping [illegible] ceasing.

Cession (n) giving up, giving up, surrendering

[illegible]

Cesspool (n) a hollow or pit in which dirty water collects [illegible] a pool in which drainage matters are collected.

Chafe (v.t) rub to make warm. [illegible] rub against.

Chaff (n) the outer covering of corn. [illegible]

Chaffer (v.i) to argue about price, to bargain. [illegible]

Chaffinch (n) a song bird.

Chagrin (n) disappointment [illegible] annoyance [illegible] annoyance, vexation.

Chain (n) a line of links. [illegible] series [illegible] (chain of events [illegible]) a connection of links, a train of events.

Chair (n) a seat for one with a back. [illegible], a seat of power [illegible] official seat. [illegible]

Chairman (n) president [illegible] a presiding officer, one who presides at a meeting

Chaise (n) a light open carriage or vehicle

Chalet (n) a summer wooden house

Chalice (n) a cup, bowl. [illegible] wine cup. [illegible] cup used at lord's supper.

Chalk (n) a white kind of lime stone used in writing on black-board [illegible]

Challenge (v.t) call to fight [illegible] defy. [illegible] invite to a contest

Chamber (n) room [illegible] chambers of the heart (n) [illegible] chamberlain (n) an official managing the affairs of a King's household or noble. [illegible]. an officer of state.

chambermaid (n) a bedroom maid servant.

chameleon (n) a species of lizard having the power of changing colour to suit its background [illegible]. lizard that changes its colour chamois (n) a goatlike antelope [illegible] mountain stag or its leather [illegible] champ (v.t) to chew, to munch. [illegible] (bite) [illegible] champagne (n) the kind of wine made [illegible]. a sparkling French wine champaign (n) open flat country. [illegible] champion (n) a defender, supporter [illegible], protector. one who takes first place in any competition. [illegible] a contestant who has defeated all others of the same class chance (n) opportunity. [illegible], unexpected happening [illegible]. (v.i) to happen [illegible] chancel (n) the eastern part of a church used by priests & choir.

chancellor (n) a high official of state or law. judge [illegible]. head of a university. [illegible].

chandelier (n) a branched frame to hold candles or lights. [illegible] a branching framework for lights chandler (n) maker or seller of candles, soaps, oil etc. general dealer change (v.t) alter [illegible] to take or give one thing for another [illegible] (n) [illegible], coins of smaller value [illegible] alteration, petty cash, change (v.i) [illegible]

changeable (a) alterable [illegible]. admitting of change fickle. [illegible] changeling (n) a child changed for another [illegible] channel (n) a narrow strait sea, [illegible], [illegible] bed of river [illegible] a passage for carrying liquid, mouth [illegible]. passage chant (v.t) to sing [illegible]. (n) a sacred song [illegible].

x chanty (n) a sailor's song.

x chanticleer (n) a cock [illegible]

chaos (n) disorder, confusion [illegible] chap (n) a crack [illegible] a pedlar or ~~[illegible]~~ wandering dealer in small things — a fellow. [illegible] chapel (n) a small place of worship attached to a house or one smaller than a church. [illegible] chaperon (n) an elder lady attending on a younger one when she goes out in public places. [illegible] chaplain (n) a clergyman attached to a family, army, navy or institution.

chaplet (n) a garland for the head. [illegible] a small crown [illegible] a string of beads for counting prayers [illegible] chapman (n) one who buys and sells things going from door to door, pedlar. [illegible]

[illegible]
a street hawker [illegible] chapter (n) main division of a book. [illegible] a meeting of the clergy [illegible] [illegible] (a small fish) char (v.t) burn to charcoal, to burn until a thing becomes black. [illegible]
char (v.t) to do house work [illegible] character (n) mental & moral character, quality. [illegible] letter of an alphabet. [illegible] [illegible] character in a play, novel or story. [illegible]
(a sign of distinction [illegible]) moral qualities.
[illegible]

Characteristic (a) natural quality or special trait in a person. [illegible] characterisation [illegible] characterise (v.t) describe [illegible] by special qualities
[illegible]

Charade (n) a word puzzle, a word-guessing game [illegible] a kind of riddle riddle charcoal (n) burnt black [illegible] charred wood charge (v.t) to load or fill [illegible] [illegible]. attack violently [illegible] accuse [illegible] set a price on

[illegible]
(n) [illegible] care. responsibility
[illegible], ~~finger~~ cost [illegible], violent attack [illegible].
[illegible]

charger (n) a war horse [illegible] a spirited horse [illegible] a plate. [illegible] chariot (n) an old time carrivehicle from which people used to fight or in which they used to ride.
[illegible]
Charioteer (n) one who drives a chariot. [illegible]
a state coach. [illegible]
Charitable (a) large hearted
[illegible] kindly [illegible]
[illegible] giving to the poor [illegible]
[illegible] alms giving } benevolent Charity (n) universal love, love for all [illegible], the nature to think kindly of all as the Good.
[illegible] generosity. kindness.
charivari (n) wild tumult Charlatan (n) pretenders a pretender or one who pretends knowledge or skill in a thing. [illegible], a quack [illegible] a pretender.
charlatanry (n) [illegible]
Charm (n) beauty [illegible], attraction [illegible]. spell [illegible] [illegible]. an object possessing magic powers [illegible] (v.t) to attract [illegible]
Charmer (n) one who charms.
[illegible]
Charming (a) attractive [illegible]
[illegible]. beautiful [illegible]
Charnel-house (n) a vault in which bones of dead persons are deposited [illegible]
Chart (n) plan, sketch, diagram giving information about a thing.
[illegible]. map [illegible]

a deed conferring rights.

Charter (n) a deed of rights [illegible] (v.t) to hire [illegible]

Chartered (a) hired [illegible]
(a chartered ship)

Charwoman (n) a woman hired for ~~work~~ house work by day. [illegible]

Chary (a) careful, cautious [illegible] sparing, frugal, thrifty. [illegible]

Chase (v.t) to hunt [illegible] to pursue, to run after [illegible] drive away [illegible] (n) [illegible] hunting [illegible].

Chasm (n) a gap, opening. [illegible] a cleft.

Chaste (a) pure mentally or morally. [illegible] Virtuous.

chaste woman (n) [illegible]

Chasten (v.t) make pure [illegible] to punish, purify

Chastise (v.t) punish by beating or severely. [illegible]

Chastisement (n) punishment [illegible]

Chastity (n) sexual purity [illegible] purity [illegible]

Chat (v.i) a friendly light talk (talk) on unimportant things [illegible]

Chatter (v.i) talk rapidly & foolishly [illegible]

[illegible]

112

Chateau (n) Castle of a French noble.

Chattels (n) moveable possessions of a person. [illegible] property, goods

Chatter (v.i) talk rapidly & continuously. [illegible] talk idly, idle talk.

Chatteringbox (n) one who talks incessantly [illegible]

Chatterer (n) idle talker [illegible]

Chatty (a) talkative

Chauffer (n) a portable furnace.

Chauffeur (n) a motor car driver. [illegible]

Chauvinism (n) extravagant patriotism.

Cheap (a) low priced [illegible] of low quality [illegible]

Cheapen (v.t) lower the price [illegible]

Cheat (v.t) to deceive, defraud [illegible]

Check (v.t) control [illegible] restrain & stop [illegible] examine & verify [illegible]

Checkmate (v.t) defeat.

Cheek (n) side of face below the eye [illegible] impudence [illegible] cheerful (a) happy, gay [illegible] [illegible] lively!

Cheekbone (n) [illegible]

Cheeky (a) impudent [illegible]

Cheer (n) happiness, joy [illegible] comfort. shout of encouragement [illegible] good things [illegible] drink applause.

cheerless (a) gloomy.
Cheese (n) food made from milk curds, thickened milk. [illegible]. [illegible]
3 X Chemical (a) relating to chemistry [illegible] [illegible] (n) substance used in or obtained by chemical process [illegible] [illegible].
X Cheetah (n) a kind of leopard [illegible].
X chef (n) male head cook. [illegible] [illegible]. a head cook.
Chemise (n) a woman's under garment [illegible] [illegible].
Chemist (n) one who prepares & sells medicines. [illegible] [illegible] a student of chemistry [illegible], [illegible].
Chemistry (n) science dealing with chemical processes. [illegible] [illegible], [illegible] [illegible], [illegible] [illegible]. [illegible]. [illegible].
Cheque (check) (n) a written order on a bank to pay money to oneself or to some one else from ~~his~~ one's account. [illegible].
Chequer (n) a chess board. [illegible] [illegible]. coloured square.
Chequered (checkered) (a) variously coloured in squares. having changes of fortunes in life good or bad [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]
Cherish (v. t) to keep in mind. remember [illegible]. treat with kindness, [illegible], [illegible] [illegible]

cherry (n) a juicy, small, red stone fruit [illegible] Cherub (n) a winged child like angel. [illegible], [illegible]. a beautiful child. [illegible]. [illegible] a winged spirit cherubic (a) angelic. characteristic of cherub Chess (n) a kind of game [illegible] an indoor game with 30 pieces on a board of 64 squares.
chessman (n) piece used in chess [illegible]
Chest (n) a large strong box. [illegible] [illegible]. upper front part of the human body, breast [illegible], [illegible] thorax [illegible] Chestnut (n) the nut of the chestnut tree. [illegible]. reddish brown brown horse [illegible] [illegible]. old joke. [illegible]. (a) reddish brown colour. [illegible].
chest of drawers [illegible] cheval glass (n) a large mirror on a frame Chevalier (n) a knight [illegible] a gallant [illegible], a horseman [illegible]. [illegible].
chew (v. t) grind with the teeth [illegible] chew the cud (v) work with the teeth to crush a thing. masticate.
chew the cud. (v. t) masticate food a second time that food that has already been swallowed [illegible] [illegible] chic (a) fashionable, stylish.
[illegible] (n) skill [illegible] chicane (n) trick [illegible], [illegible], [illegible] chicanery (n) trickery, dishonest reasoning. [illegible] artifice. [illegible], [illegible] [illegible] chick or chicken (n) young of a fowl or some other birds. [illegible]. [illegible]. a young person. [illegible], [illegible] chicken hearted (a) timid [illegible] [illegible] cowardly – chicken pox (n) a mild contagious eruptive disease, a mild form of small pox. [illegible]

chickling (n)

chicory (n) a carrot like root powdered & used with coffee or as a substitute for coffee.

chickweed (n) a weed with which birds are fed.

Censure, blame

chide (v.t) to scold by words, [illegible]

chief (a) important, principal [illegible] (n) head man [illegible] chieftain (n) head of a clan, [illegible], leader [illegible] chignon (n) a roll of hair worn on the back of the head & neck [illegible] child (n) infant [illegible]. young of a human being, boy or girl. [illegible] son or daughter child's play (n) something easy.

childhood (n) state of being a child, time from birth to puberty [illegible] infancy.

childish (a) like a child, foolish, silly. [illegible] childlike (a) simple as a child innocent. [illegible]

chill (n) coldness [illegible]. cold that causes shivering (v.t) to freeze [illegible] depress chilli (y) (n) a fragrant fruit used in various ways [illegible] chillum (n) a hookah or part of the hookah holding tobacco.

chilognatha (n) millipedes [illegible] chilly (a) cold somewhat [illegible] chilopoda (n) centipedes.

chimaera (n) chimera, an idle fancy, imagination [illegible] chimerical (a) fanciful, [illegible]

chime (n) harmonious sound of bells, musical instruments etc. [illegible] sound of bells.

chimney (n) a funnel for the escape of smoke gases etc [illegible] a channel for letting out smoke.

chimpanzee (n) a large man like kind of African ape [illegible] a large kind of ape chin (n) part of the face below the mouth. [illegible] china (n) a fine kind of white earth. [illegible] — porcelain (2) vessels made of china clay porcelain. [illegible] china dish (n) [illegible]

china ware (n) [illegible]

chinch (n) bug. [illegible]

chinchilla (n) a S. American animal valued for its fur.

chine (n) the backbone of animals [illegible] a spine a small valley.

chink (n) a small break or crack, a narrow opening [illegible] metallic [illegible] jingle

Chirography (n) penmanship [illegible]

Chintz (n) Cotton cloth printed in several colours. glazed calico cut off small pieces

Chip (n) flat thin piece of wood. [illegible]. thin slices of potato, plantain etc fried in oil [illegible]. (V.t) cut into small pieces. [illegible]

Chiromancy (n) palmistry [illegible]

Chiropodist (n) one who removes corns, warts etc. foot & hand doctor.

Chirp (n) the sharp thin sound of certain animals & insects [illegible] (chirrup) a bird note

Chirrup (n) sound made by birds & insects.

Chisel (n) a tool for shaping wood or stone [illegible]. an iron or steel tool.

Chit (n) a short note, order or pass. [illegible]. a babe.

chit chat - [illegible]

Chit-chat (n) a light talk [illegible] gossiping.

Chivalrous (a) bold, brave [illegible] gallant

Chivalry (n) brave deeds [illegible] bravery shown in helping women or the weak people. [illegible]. Courtesy, the feudal knighthood's system

Chlorate (n) a kind of salt [illegible]

Chloride (n) a compound of chlorine [illegible]

Chlorine (n) a yellowish green poisonous, bad smelling gas. [illegible]

Chlorodyne (n) a pain easing medicine.

Chloroform (n) a drug which when breathed causes deep sleep & deadens the senses. [illegible]

115

Chlorophyll (n) green colouring matter of plants & vegetables [illegible].

Chock (n) a block of wood used as a wedge [illegible].

Chocolate (n) paste of the cocoa seed. [illegible]. sweetmeat made of cocoa paste & sugar. [illegible].

Choice (n) choosing, selection [illegible]. thing chosen [illegible] decision [illegible], alternative, preference. [illegible].

[illegible]

Choir (n) band of singers in church service [illegible]. the place of their seat in church.

a body of singers

Choke (v.t) make it impossible to breathe, suffocate [illegible] stop up, obstruct [illegible] be blocked up [illegible]

Choler (n) bile [illegible], anger [illegible].

Cholera (n) a very infectious deadly disease whose chief symptoms are very loose motions & vomiting [illegible]

Choleric (a) angry [illegible]

Cholic (a) of the bile. [illegible]

Choose (v.t) to select, pick up from [illegible]

Chop (v.t) to cut down [illegible]. cut into small pieces [illegible]. (n) a big prepared piece of meat with a bone in it [illegible].

Chopper (n) a large bladed knife or axe, [illegible],

~~Chorat~~

Choppy (a) having many waves of running in irregular waves.

chopsticks (n) sticks used by chinese & japanese in taking food to the mouth [illegible] choral (a) belonging to the chord.

chord (n) straight line joining the ends of a curve [illegible]. string of musical instrument [illegible], [illegible]. harmonious combination of sound [illegible]

[illegible]

chorister (n) [illegible] singer in a chorus [illegible]

[illegible]

chorography (n) description of a place [illegible]

[illegible]

chorus (n) a band of singers in church, drama etc [illegible], refrain of a song [illegible]. singing together [illegible] chosen (a) selected [illegible], important [illegible] chough (n) red legged crow [illegible], jackdaw [illegible].

choultry (n) a rest house [illegible] chouse (v.t) to cheat [illegible].

chow chow (n) a mixed chinese pickle. [illegible].

chowry (n) an instrument used for driving away flies [illegible] chrematist (n) political economist [illegible]

chrism (n) consecrated holy oil. [illegible]

Christ (n) name of Jesus, the anointed. [illegible]

Christen (v.t) to baptise. to name. [illegible]

Christendom (n) Christians as a whole or the country inhabited by christians.

[illegible]

Christian (n) follower of christian religion. [illegible]

Christianity (n) religion preached by christ [illegible]

Christmas (n) a christian church festival celebrating the birth of christ on 25th december.

Christmas eve (n) the evening of 24th december.

Chromatic (a) coloured.

Chrome (n) yellow pigment [illegible]. leather prepared by chrome tanning.

Chromium (n) a bright metal which does not rust. [illegible]

Chronic (a) permanent [illegible], lasting a long time. [illegible] habitual deep rooted, continuous. [illegible] long continued. [illegible]

Chronicle (n) record of events in time order, narration of events in the order of their happening [illegible]

Chronicler (n) one who writes history according to the order of events [illegible]

Chronographer (n) [illegible]

Chronological (a) according to order of events. [illegible] having to do with time

[illegible]

Chronology (n) list of events with dates in the order of their happening [illegible]. science of fixing dates [illegible]

[illegible]

Chronograph (n) [illegible]

Chronometer (n) a very accurate time keeper. [illegible]

the pupa of an insect

Chrysalis (n) the case of an insect in the grub stage. [illegible] the state of an insect between creeping & flying. the stage of some insects [illegible]

Chub (n) a fresh water fish.

Chubby (a) plump [illegible] fat cheeks [illegible]

Chuck (n) pat gently under the chin. [illegible] the cluck of a hen

Chuckle (n) a light suppressed laughter [illegible] a low laugh. the cry of a hen

~~Ch Cider (n)~~

Chum (n) friend, a chamber fellow. [illegible] comrade. associate – [illegible]

[illegible]

Chump (n) a thick [illegible]

Chunk (n) a thick piece of anything [illegible] (a short thick piece

Church (n) a house of worship for christians. [illegible] an edifice dedicated to worship. the christians or clergy as a whole. [illegible] churchman (n) member of a church.

Churchyard (n) burial ground surrounding a church. [illegible]

Churl (n) a badly brought up fellow [illegible] a rude fellow, a clown

Churlish (a) ill-bred. [illegible] rude.

.11/

Churn (v.t) agitate cream to get butter. [illegible] (n) an earthen vessel for cream or milk. [illegible] a machine used for butter making [illegible]

Churn (n) a machine or staff for the production of butter from cream or milk. [illegible]

Chute (n) waterfall. [illegible]

Chyle (n) a white substance which conveys digested food fats into the blood. [illegible]

food pulp in the stomach

Chyme (n) food digested in the stomach & change into acid pulp by gastric juice. [illegible] a fluid drawn from food [illegible] in the intestines.

Cicada (n) locust which produces chirping sound ചീവീട്.

Cicatrix (n) cicatrice – a wound scar. [illegible] a scar on or in a wound

a beverage made from apples

Cider (n) a drink of fermented apple juice. [illegible]

Cigar (n) a roll of tobacco for smoking ചുരുട്ട് tobacco leaves rolled for smoking Cigarette (n) minced tobacco rolled in paper for smoking.

Cimeter (n) a sword with a (~~convex edge~~) edge curved outward [illegible]

~~ab~~ Cinchona (n) quinine yielding tree [illegible], its bark which is used as a medicine. [illegible]

Cincture (n) belt, girdle. [illegible]

Cinder (n) partly burnt pieces of wood [illegible]. burning charcoal [illegible].

Cinderella (n) person of unrecognised beauty or merit [illegible].

Cinders (n) ashes [illegible].

Cinema (n) a theatre for showing films. [illegible] ([illegible]) [illegible] a movie or talkie [illegible]. a motion picture.

Cinema goer (n) one who attends motion pictures.

Cinematograph (n) an apparatus for producing or showing motion pictures [illegible]. an apparatus for exhibiting animated photographs

Cinematography (n) science of filming. [illegible].

Cinnabar (n) red sulphide of mercury. [illegible] [illegible].

Cinnamon (n) inner bark of a certain tree used as spice & medicine [illegible] a spice. [illegible]

Cipher (n) symbol zero [illegible]. secret writing [illegible]. Key to secret writing [illegible]. any figure [illegible]. unimportant person or thing [illegible]. (v.i) to calculate or work by arithmetic [illegible]. in arithmetic nothing

Circe (n) an enchantress [illegible]

Circle (n) a round plane figure [illegible]. a ring [illegible], [illegible]. [illegible]

a group of persons with common interests. [illegible]. Circular object. [illegible], [illegible] (v.i) to go round [illegible], surround [illegible]

Circlet (n) a small circle. [illegible], a circular band worn on head, chaplet, a garland for the head.

Circuit (n) going round, tour, [illegible]. circular course or travel [illegible], [illegible] a district.

Circuitous (a) round about, not straight. [illegible], [illegible].

Circular (a) round, spherical, in the form of a circle [illegible] (n) a printed notice sent round to a number of persons. [illegible]. a notice sent round.

Circularise (v.t) to send circular to [illegible] propagate [illegible]

Circulate (v.t) to spread [illegible] (v.i) to move in a circle [illegible]

Circulation (n) spreading [illegible] movement of blood in the body [illegible] ([illegible]). transmission. [illegible] no. of copies sold of a newspaper or periodical

Circulatory (a) circulating [illegible], [illegible]

Circumambient (a) going round

Circumcise (v.t) to cut off the foreskin of the male organ. [illegible].

Circumcision (n) the act or ceremony of circumcising. [illegible].

Circumference (n) boundary line of a circle. the outline of a circle. [illegible] distance round a circle.

Circumlocution (n) round about way of expressing an idea. [illegible] round about mode of speaking [illegible]

Circumlocutory (a) diffuse [illegible]

Circumnavigate (v.i) sail round the world. [illegible]

Circumnavigation (n) sailing round the world. [illegible]

Circumscribe (v.t) to enclose, to limit. [illegible], restrict. circumscribed [illegible]

Circumscription (n)

Circumspect (a) careful, prudent, cautious, wary. [illegible] prudent [illegible]

Circumspection (n) caution, carefulness. [illegible] prudence.

Circumstance (n) state, condition [illegible].

Circumstantial (a) incidental, accidental, [illegible], not based on direct proof but on suggestions. [illegible]

Circumstantial evidence: [illegible]

Circ. evidence (n) [illegible]

Circumvent (v.t) to get the better of by tricking. outwit, cheat, deceive [illegible]. get over a difficulty by fraud [illegible].

Circumvention (n) deceit, fraud [illegible].

Circus (n) an enclosed place for shows. an exhibition of feats by men & animals, a circular building for entertainment, a [illegible] of houses built in a circle.

119

[illegible]

Cirrus (n) cloud floating high up in the sky.

Cist (n) a stone coffin or tomb ~~a stone chamber [illegible]~~ a burial stone chamber [illegible].

[illegible] (n) [illegible]

Cistern (n) a water tank with pipes, a tank or receptacle for water, for storing water. [illegible]

Citadel (n) a fortress, castle [illegible] a place of safety [illegible], a city fortress.

Cite (v.t) summon to appear before a court. [illegible]. quote [illegible]. bring forward as a proof or example. [illegible] summon, quote [illegible]

~~Citizen (n)~~

Cithara (n) a metal-stringed musical instrument [illegible]

Citizen (n) one living in a city [illegible]. a townsman.

Citizenship (n) state of being a citizen [illegible]. the rights & duties of a citizen. [illegible]

Citric acid (n) [illegible]

Citron (n) a fruit, large, yellow fruit of the lemon similar to a lemon. [illegible].

City (n) a large town [illegible].

Civet (n) butterlike substance got from the glands of the civet cat used as a medicine, — butterlike medicinal perfume got from the civet cat [illegible].

Civet cat (n) the animal producing civet [illegible].

Civic (a) of a city or citizen [illegible], relating to a city.

Civics (n) duties & rights of a citizen [illegible]. method of civil rule [illegible]

Civil (a) not criminal or military [illegible], occurring between fellow citizens. [illegible] (civil war [illegible]) polite, good mannered [illegible] courteous. not military, secular

Civilian (n) one not in the armed forces or military service a govt. officers not in the army. one engaged in civil pursuits

Civility (n) courtesy, politeness [illegible]

Civilization (n) advanced state of social life, refinement [illegible]

Civilized (a) refined, cultured [illegible]

Civilly (ad) politely, in a refined way. [illegible]

Clad (p.a) clothed.

Claim (v.t) demand as a right [illegible] claim (n) demand.

Claimant (n) one who claims [illegible]. heir.

Clairaudience (n) the power of hearing things not present to the senses. [illegible]

Clairvoyance (n) power of seeing things not present to the eyesight [illegible]

12c supposed mesmeric power of discerning things

Clairvoyant a having power of seeing mentally what is happening out of sight. [illegible] one possessing clairvoyant power. [illegible]

Clam (n) a kind of shellfish or a small bi-valve shellfish with hinged double shells used as food. [illegible] (v.i) to stick [illegible]

Clamant (a) crying aloud noisy. [illegible] loud calling.

Clamber (v.i) get up with difficulty using hands & feet [illegible]

Clammy (a) moist & sticky [illegible]

Clamorous (a) noisy, [illegible]

Clamour (n) loud noise, confused uproar [illegible], outcry

Clamp (n) a piece of wood timber or metal used in fastening things together, iron or timber fastening. [illegible]

Clan (n) a tribe, a large family group, no. of families under a chief [illegible]

~~Clansman (n) one of a clan~~

Clandestine (a) secret, underhand. [illegible] (clandestine meetings [illegible]) concealed, hidden private clang (n) metallic ringing sound [illegible]. a sharp sound.

[illegible]

clank (n) sound as of a rattling chain [illegible]. a short metallic sound clansman (n) one of a clan or tribe. ഗോത്രക്കാരൻ.

clap (v.t) strike the hands together [illegible] ([illegible]) (bell tongue) clapper (n) the tongue of a bell [illegible]. a wind rattle for frightening birds [illegible] claptrap (n) trick empty or (a trick to gain applause) meaningless words, [illegible] [illegible], [illegible], [illegible] a trick of speech.

claret (n) a red French wine [illegible].

clarification (n) making clear [illegible].

clarified (a) made clear [illegible]. made pure [illegible], [illegible] (clarified butter [illegible]

~~classification~~ clarify (v.t) make clear or purify. [illegible]. [illegible] clarinet (n) a wind instrument. (clarionet) clarion (n) a kind of shrill trumpet [illegible]. (a) loud & clear, rousing [illegible] clarity (n) clearness [illegible]. [illegible]. [illegible]. purity [illegible].

[illegible]

clash (v.i) strike together with force [illegible] (n) collision [illegible]. [illegible] clasp (v.t) to hold fast catch [illegible]. embrace [illegible], [illegible]. (n) a hook for fastening [illegible], [illegible].

claspknife (n) a knife folding into the handles [illegible].

class (n) kind [illegible]. group [illegible]. division rank or order [illegible]. a no. of pupils seated together for being taught [illegible]. [illegible]. [illegible] classic (a) of the first class. [illegible]. best literature. The greatest literature of Greece & Rome.

classical (a) of great merit, [illegible]. very ancient. [illegible]. chaste, pure. [illegible]. elegant [illegible]. refined [illegible].

classics (n) works of great merit [illegible], literature of Greece & Rome — classification (n) act of arranging in groups [illegible]. forming into classes [illegible].

classify (v.t) arrange in classes. [illegible]. arrange according to classes classmate (n) one learning in the same class as another [illegible], [illegible] clatter (n) repeated rattling noise [illegible]. noisy talk.

clause (n) part of a bigger sentence with a subj. & pred. of its own [illegible]. a single provision in a treaty, contract etc. [illegible]. [illegible], [illegible].

claustrophobia (n) fear of closed place.

X claw (n) hooked horny nail of bird or beast [illegible], [illegible] a curved device for holding, ([illegible]) [illegible]. (v.t) scratch [illegible]. flake [illegible] clay (n) soft, plastic sticky earth [illegible]. earth in general.

X clavicle (n) collar-bone [illegible], [illegible].

[illegible]

clean (a) not dirty. tidy [illegible] free from dirt [illegible] (v.t) to make [illegible]. complete.
[illegible]

cleanliness (n) purity. [illegible].

cleanse (v.t) make pure [illegible] clear (a) pure (clear water)

[illegible]. bright [illegible]
[illegible]. undimmed or cloudless.
(clear sky [illegible])

clearance (n) removal

x cleanness (n) purity. [illegible] [illegible]. brightness. [illegible] x clearing (n). land cleared of woods or forest for cultivation.

[illegible]
[illegible]

clearing-house (n) a place of banking exchange clearly (adv) distinctly [illegible]

[illegible].

clearness (n) purity [illegible],
[illegible]. state of being clear [illegible],
[illegible]

cleat (n) a wedge [illegible].

cleave (v.t) to split asunder [illegible] to stick [illegible] cleavage (n) a cleft or a crack. [illegible].

cleaver (n) a butcher's knife or chopper [illegible], axe, [illegible], cleft (n) a crack, crevice, fissure [illegible], [illegible], [illegible]

clog (n) a hammer [illegible], pad [illegible] [illegible], [illegible], [illegible]

clemency (n) kindness, mercy [illegible], [illegible]. leniency.

clement (a) kind, merciful [illegible]. [illegible] gentle, cleave (v.i) hold fast to. [illegible]

(clinch) clench (v.t) grasp firm [illegible]
[illegible], fasten together tightly
[illegible]

clepsydra (n) a water clock. [illegible]
[illegible].

clergy (n) christian religious ministers or religious ministers in general [illegible]. ministers of a church clergyman (n) of one of the male clergy. [illegible]. a church minister clerical (a) of the clergy or clerk.

[illegible], [illegible]
[illegible].
[illegible]

clerk (n) a professional writer in an office or other institutions. [illegible], [illegible]. clergyman. [illegible]

~~x clerical (a) clergyman [illegible]~~ ~~x clerical (a) of~~ clever (a) skilful [illegible] quick in understanding. [illegible] [illegible] able cleverly (adv) skilfully [illegible].

[illegible]. ably cleverness (n) skill [illegible]

(clue) clew (n) a ball of thread, yarn or coir. [illegible]. anything that helps to solve a mystery or difficult problem. a key to the solution of a mystery [illegible] (lit) [illegible]. [illegible], [illegible]. key to a secret.
clew or clue.

click (n) a sudden short sharp sound.
[illegible]

client (n) one who goes to a lawyer to get help from him. [illegible]
[illegible]. customer. [illegible]
[illegible] one for whom a Lawyer or other professional man acts [illegible] clientele (n) the customers of a shopkeeper or lawyer. [illegible] one's clients collectively.

a precipice

cliff (n) a high steep rock or mountain or its steep side. [illegible] ([illegible]) climate (n) the average weather condition of a place or region. [illegible]

atmospheric condition

climatic (a) of climate [illegible] pertaining to climates [illegible] the culmination end.

x climax (n) highest pt.

climb (v.t) to get up with difficulty [illegible] to ascend.

climber (n) one who climbs, a climbing plant. [illegible] clime (n) climate, [illegible], region [illegible]

x climax (n) highest point, culmination. [illegible] gradually getting up till the highest point is reached. [illegible] exciting end or finish clime or climate [illegible] clinch (v.t) to grasp firmly [illegible], beat down or rivet a nail. [illegible] fasten firmly.

cling (v.i) hang on [illegible] stick to [illegible] hold to clinic (n) a private hospital or nursing home [illegible] practical instruction given to medical students in a hospital. [illegible] a dispensary, a sickroom confined to bed [illegible] clink (n) jingling noise, [illegible] clip (n) a grasp fastener [illegible] (v.t) to cut short with shears [illegible] to curtail.

(n) [illegible]

clipper (n) shearing instrument [illegible]. a fast sailing ship, or vessel [illegible] clippings (n) cut pieces, cuttings [illegible] clique (n) a group of persons formed primarily for a mean purpose, a faction, party group, a party within a party [illegible] coterie. [illegible] clitoris (n) a homologue of the penis in the females.

cloak (n) a loose flowing upper garment, an outer garment [illegible], pretext [illegible], that which conceals [illegible] disguise. [illegible] (v.t) conceal, hide [illegible].

clock (n) a time measuring instrument [illegible] a time-measurer clockwise (a) moving in a circular manner from ~~right to~~ left to right [illegible]

clockwork of clock machinery [illegible] clod (n) a lump of earth [illegible]. a stupid person [illegible] clog (n

clodhopper (n) a country man, a blockhead [illegible]

clog (n) a wooden shoe, a shoe with a wooden sole [illegible], a thick thing used for obstructing motion [illegible] a covered arcade of a monastery [illegible] cloister (n) a place of religious retirement as monastery or nunnery. [illegible], [illegible].

close (v.t) to shut [illegible] to end [illegible]. (a) near by [illegible]. to get together, [illegible] shut, [illegible] nearly [illegible] [illegible]. close (n) [illegible] an enclosed place.

close-fisted (a) stingy [illegible] secret or private closet (n) a small room for various purposes. [illegible].

closure (n) end [illegible] — closing discussion on a subject & votes of the House. [illegible] clot (v.i) form into clots, coagulate curdle. [illegible] coagulated matter, lump [illegible].

cloth (n) woven fabric [illegible] [illegible], [illegible] textile matter.

clothe (n) dress, garment [illegible] clothes (n) dress. clothings [illegible], [illegible]

X clothier (n) maker or seller of cloth [illegible] and [illegible] clothing (n) attire, dress, raiment

X clothes-horse (n) a frame to hang clothes on. [illegible].

clothing (n) dress [illegible] garment cloud (n) water vapour hanging high in the air. [illegible]. a large number, mass. (cloud of locust, cloud of dust) [illegible].

cloudburst (n) a sudden heavy downpour [illegible]

· cloudless (a) clear [illegible], [illegible]

Cloudy (a) made dark by clouds.

Clove (n)

clough (n) ravine, valley [illegible] [illegible], [illegible].

clout (n) an old rough piece of cloth [illegible] a piece of material used for mending, a blow [illegible] clove (n) dried flower bud of the clove tree used as a spice. [illegible].

cloven (a) divided into two [illegible]. split. cloven hoof [illegible] clover (n) a plant grown as food for cattle [illegible] a species of grassy plants clown (n) a jester, buffoon, fool, [illegible], [illegible] a rustic one who amuses people with his foolish tricks & behaviour in drama, plays, circus etc clownish (a) foolish, awkward [illegible]. clownlike, cloy (v.i) get tired of a thing by having eating too much of it. [illegible] become distasteful because of excess, overeat [illegible] make to eat too much [illegible] satiate.

club (n) a heavy thick short stick with a thick end. [illegible], [illegible] a meeting-house for people for enjoyment [illegible]. (v) associate an association. for a common purpose. [illegible] club-footed (a) with deformed feet cluck (n) the call of a hen to her chicken [illegible], [illegible] clue (n) a ball of thread [illegible] a key to the solution of anything [illegible]. [illegible]. link of connection clump (n) collection of trees [illegible]. [illegible]. cluster [illegible], [illegible]. cluster of trees clumsy (a) awkward [illegible], ill-shaped [illegible] clung (v.i) held firmly to, stuck. [illegible], [illegible] embraced [illegible]

Cluster (n) bunch. [illegible], [illegible].
(v. i) collect together. [illegible]

Clutch (v. t) hold firmly, grasp seize, to grip
[illegible]. (n) a lever used in changing gear, device to throw machinery into gear

[illegible] (n) [illegible].

Clutter (n) disorder, confusion
[illegible]. [illegible]

Clyster (n) [illegible]

Coach (n) a four wheeled closed carriage, railway carriage, a private tutor, teacher of a team in games & sports (v. t) teach [illegible] a large carriage bring forward educationally.

Coachman (n) driver of a coach [illegible], [illegible].

Coadjutor (n) colleague of [illegible] assistant [illegible] helper, assistant.

Coagulate (v. t. & i) cause to clot. [illegible] curdle [illegible] (... together) to thicken.
Coagulation—

Coal (n) charred vegetable matter found in the bowels of the earth used as fuel. [illegible], [illegible] a combustible mineral substance

Coalesce (v. i) join together, unite. [illegible]. [illegible]. unite)

Coalition (n) joining together, combination [illegible] union, alliance. [illegible], [illegible]. (Coalition ministry [illegible])

Coal mine (n) coal pit, coal field. [illegible]

Coal tar (n) thick black liquid from coal.

Coarse (a) rough [illegible], not refined [illegible] not fine. [illegible], harsh. [illegible].
(Coarse voice [illegible]) gross.

Coarsen (v. t) to make rough, [illegible]

Coarseness (n) roughness. [illegible].

Coast (n) bank, shore, [illegible], [illegible]
(v. i) go along the coast [illegible]

Coal field (n) [illegible]

125

Coaster (n) a vessel trading along the coast [illegible] a coasting vessel.

Coastguard (n) police watching the coast to prevent smuggling etc.

Coasting (a) sailing along the coast [illegible]

Coastline (n) shoreline [illegible].

Coat (n) upper outer garment. [illegible], [illegible]. a covering [illegible] (v. t) to cover with. smear with. [illegible], [illegible].

Coating (n) cloth for a coat [illegible]. covering or smearing [illegible].

Coat of arms (n) a family badge [illegible]

Coat of mail (n) armour for the upper part of the body made of metal rings.

Coax (v. t) persuade by good words [illegible]. wheedle, cajole. [illegible]
[illegible] flattering, [illegible]

Coaxing (n) cajoling [illegible] persuasion

Cob (n) the head of corn like wheat; maize [illegible], a short legged strong horse. [illegible], [illegible]. spider [illegible]. a horse for heavy weights

Cobalt (n) a nickel like metal or the pigment made from it [illegible], [illegible], [illegible]

Cobble (v. t) mend or make shoes [illegible], [illegible]. patch up & mend [illegible]

X ~~Cockatrice (n) a fabled monster with a serpent's body [illegible]~~

Cobbler (n) one who mends or makes shoes [illegible]

Coble (n) a fishing boat with a flat bottom. [illegible] a small boat

Cobra (n) a hooded (poisonous / venomous) snake. [illegible] a serpent

Cobweb (n) web of the spider. [illegible]

Coca (n) a Peruvian shrub which has narcotic & stimulating property.

Cocaine (n) a pain killing drug. [illegible]

Coccus (n) [illegible]

Cochineal (n) a scarlet dye made from the dried bodies of certain insects ~~found~~ [illegible] scarlet dye stuff from an insect.

Cock (n) male fowl [illegible] male fowl of [illegible] gun hammer [illegible]

X ~~Cockatrice (n) [illegible]~~

~~Cockerel (n) a young cock. [illegible]~~

Cockcrow (n) daybreak. [illegible]

Cocker (n) ~~young cock~~ fondle [illegible]

Cockerel (n) a young cock. [illegible]

Cockade (n) ribbon worn on the hat as a badge.

Cockatoo (n) a tufted parrot. [illegible]

Cockatrice (n) a fabled monster like serpent [illegible]

Cockchafer (n) a kind of beetle

Cockswain (n) the petty officer who steers a boat

Cockchafer beetle [illegible]

Cockcrow (n) daybreak, early morning [illegible]

Cocker (v.t) fondle [illegible] a small animal

Cockerel (n) a young cock [illegible]

Cockeye (n) a squint eye [illegible]

Cockeyed (a) squint eyed [illegible]

Cockfight (n) a ~~fight~~ sport in which cocks are made to fight [illegible]

Cockle (v.t) curl up [illegible] a mollusc with bivalve

Cockney (n) a Londoner or his language

Cockpit (n) a place arranged for cockfight [illegible]. arena of fight [illegible]. pilot's seat [illegible]. a room in a warship for the wounded. [illegible]

Cockroach (n) a large flat bodied insect found generally in houses, ships etc [illegible], black beetle [illegible]

Cockscomb (n) the crest on a cock's head. [illegible] a vain fellow, fop. [illegible]

Cocksure [illegible]

Cocktail (n) a mixture of strong drinks [illegible]

Coco (n) cocoa. a tropical palm tree [illegible]

Cocoa (n) cacao seeds. the seed of the cacao tree. drink from its seeds, beverage from the prepared seeds

Coconut, Cocoanut (n) the nut of the coco palm. [illegible]

silken sheath spun by silkworms
Cocoon (n) silk case spun by the grubs of some insects. [illegible]

Coction (n) boiling, cooking. [illegible]

Cod, Codfish (n) a valuable food fish found in Northern seas
Coddle (v.t) fondle. [illegible] to pet
Codling (n) small cod.

Cod liver oil (n) medicinal oil prepared from the liver of the cod fish. [illegible]

Code (n) a ~~b~~ collection of laws or rules [illegible]. secret language [illegible] system of sending messages, symbols. [illegible]

Codex (n) a manuscript volume, [illegible] a code.

[illegible]
X Codification (n) act of reducing laws to a system. Collecting & editing laws. [illegible]

X Codicil (n) a supplement to a will or treaty. something added to a will or ~~treaty later on~~ at a later thought. [illegible]

Codifier (n) one who codifies, Codist.

Codify (v) put into the form of a code. systematise. [illegible] classify.

Coeducation (n) education of boys & girls in the same school. [illegible]

Coefficient (n) number by which an unknown is to be multiplied in algebra. [illegible]

(2)

Coequal (a) of the same position jointly equal, rank or status [illegible] (n) a person of the same or equal rank. [illegible]

Coerce (v.t) force, compel [illegible]

Coercion (n) force, compulsion. [illegible]

Coercive (a) using force. [illegible] possessing power of coercion.

Coeval (a) of the same age, existing at the same time. [illegible] contemporary.

Coexist (v.i) exist at the same time

Coexistence (n) existing at the same time

* Coexistent (a) of the same age or time existing together.

X Coextension (n) equality. [illegible]

X Coextend (v.i) extend equally.

Coextensive (a) equally extensive.

Coffee (n) seed of the coffee plant [illegible], a drink made from the powdered coffee berry. [illegible]

Coffer (n) a chest for keeping valuable things in. a treasure chest. [illegible]

Coffin (n) a chest or box for the dead body. [illegible] a case

Cog (n) wheel tooth [illegible] a small boat

Cog wheel (n) wheel with teeth, a [illegible]

Cogency (n) force [illegible] convincing argument. Conviction [illegible]

Cogent (a) forcible, [illegible], convincing. [illegible]

Cogitate (v.i) to think over deeply, reflect. [illegible]

Cogitation (n) deep thought [illegible] reflexion.

Cognac (n) a kind of French wine – brandy.

Cognate (a) related, of similar kind, [illegible] of the kind or family, [illegible]

Cognition (n) power of knowing perception. [illegible] superknowledge.

Cognisable (a) perceptible, [illegible] ~~Cognisable~~ [illegible]. Capable of being known [illegible].

Cognisance (n) knowledge, badge, judicial notice. [illegible]

Cognisant (a) having knowledge of [illegible] possessing knowledge of Cognise (v.t) be aware of [illegible] become conscious of, have knowledge of Cognomen (n) a nick name [illegible]. A surname [illegible]

Cohabit (v.i) live together as husband & wife or as if husband & wife. live as married people [illegible] have sexual connection [illegible]

Cohabitation (n) living together as husband or as if husband & wife. [illegible], sexual union. [illegible]

Cohere (v.i) stick together [illegible]

Coherence (n) sticking together [illegible]

Coherent (a) sticking [illegible], consistent, connected [illegible], Connected

Coh[illegible] (n) [illegible]

Cohesion (n) attraction or power by which particles of bodies stick together [illegible].

Cohesive (a) having the power to stick together [illegible]. of sticking quality Cohort (n) a division of an army consisting of about 600 men [illegible]. a collection of armed men [illegible].

Coif (n) a kind of hat covering the whole head, head cover worn by women.

Coiffeur (n) hairdresser. a hairdresser.

Coiffure (n) hairdressing, head dress. way in which hair is dressed, style of hairdressing.

Coil (n) anything wound in spirals [illegible]. (v.t) twist or wind in spirals [illegible], Coin (n) metal currency, money [illegible]. (v.t) make metal into money. [illegible] make new [illegible] to invent (coin many words make a new word. [illegible]

Coinage (n) act of coining [illegible], coin current coins [illegible].

Coiner (n) counterfeit money one who mints coins [illegible]. one who makes false coins [illegible].

Coincide (v.i) agree with [illegible], join together [illegible]

Coincidence (n) agreement in time or space. [illegible] & chance occurrence [illegible]

Coir (n) coconut fibre wound together for making rope [illegible]. Coconut fibre rope. [illegible].

Coition (n) sexual union [illegible]

Coke (n) charred or burnt coal. [illegible] fuel made from coal.

Colander (n) a vessel with a number of holes at the bottom, a strainer. [illegible]

Colation (n) straining [illegible]

Cold (a) not hot [illegible], having low temperature — (n) running of nose & eyes, a nasal disease cold [illegible].

Colic (n) severe griping pain in the intestine or bowels [illegible]

Coliseum (Colosseum) a large open air theatre — ancient Rome

Collaborate (v.i) a join with another for common work. [illegible].

Collaboration (n) going together for work. [illegible] united labour. [illegible]

Collaborator (n) ~~associate~~ ~~for working~~ associate in work. Joint worker. [illegible]

Collapse (v.i) break to pieces breakdown, along [illegible] fall in health. [illegible] (n) breaking to pieces along [illegible]. failure in health [illegible] failure [illegible].

Collapsable (Collapsible) (a) that can be folded. [illegible]

Collar (n) neck band, something worn round the neck [illegible] the part of a shirt or coat at the neck [illegible]. (v.t) seize by the collar [illegible].

Collate (v.t) compare keeping side by side. [illegible] bring together.

Collateral (a) side by side. [illegible] parallel

Collation (n) a light meal, repast [illegible].

Colleague (n) co-worker in office. [illegible] a fellow worker, one associated with others.

Collect (v.t) to bring together, gather [illegible] get together [illegible] assemble [illegible]

Collect (n) a short prayer. [illegible]

Collected (a) gathered, calm. [illegible]

Collection (n) gathering [illegible] things gathered. [illegible]

Collective (a) acting together, thought of as one. [illegible]

Collector (n) one who collects, the head of a district [illegible]

College (n) a institution for higher education. [illegible]

Collegian (n) member of a college [illegible]. College student.

Collegiate (a) pertaining to a college [illegible].

Collide (v.i) dash together with force [illegible]

X Collision (n) dashing together with force [illegible] [illegible]

state of being crushed together

X Collie (n) a shepherd's dog.

Collier (n) a coal mine worker [illegible]. a ship used in carrying coal [illegible] Coal miner.

Colliery (n) a coal mine and coal field, pit [illegible] from which coal is dug out.

Collop (n) a slice of meat. [illegible]

Colloquial (a) used in everyday ~~[illegible]~~ speech, not literal (conversational) [illegible]

Colloquialism (n) non-literary language. [illegible] familiar phrase.

Colloquy (n) conversation [illegible]

Collude (v.i) agree secretly for a bad purpose. [illegible]

Collusion (n) secret co-operation for a wrong purpose [illegible]

Collyrium (n) eye wash, eye-salve [illegible] —

colocynth (n) bitter apple [illegible]

Colon (n) a punctuation mark thus, a ~~[illegible]~~ (:mark) in a sentence. [illegible], part of the large intestines. [illegible]

Colonel (n) commander of a regiment [illegible]

Colonial (a) of a colony [illegible]. (n) person living in a colony.

Colonist (n) settler in a colony. [illegible]

Colonisation. (n) act of settling down in a colony [illegible]

Colonize (v.i) to settle down in a colony [illegible]

~~Colony (n)~~

Colonnade (n) a row of pillars. an arrangement of [illegible]

Colony (n) a place of new settlement — new settlement of a band of emigrants [illegible]. a dependent state [illegible] settlement of a band of a people who has left their mother country for good, a country over which a mother country still wields some sort of power.

Colophon (n) inscription at the end of each chapter or at the end of a book. (a large [illegible]) [illegible] the tail piece in old books

Colophony (n) the residue of distillation of crude turpentine, rosin. [illegible]

Colossal (a) of huge size, very big, of immense size. gigantic. [illegible]

Colosseum (n) [illegible]

Colossus (n) a huge statue [illegible] of Apollo, the Sun-God at the entrance of the harbour of Rhodes, a very huge person or thing. [illegible], [illegible]. [illegible]. [illegible] [illegible]

~~Colum (n)~~

Colostrum (n) a mammal's first milk after child-birth [illegible] [illegible]

Colour (n) appearance of an object to the eye as red, blue etc, [illegible]. paint, hue, tint, [illegible], pigment [illegible], pretext, [illegible] pretension —

Colour-blind (a) blind as to certain colours.

Colour-blindness (n) inability to make out one colour from another. [illegible] [illegible]. [illegible]

Coloured (a) not white skinned [illegible]

Colourful (a) full of colours [illegible] (coloured description)

Colours (n) flags, standards, badges.

Colporteur (n) one who goes about selling religious pamphlets or books. [illegible] a pedlar of tracts.

Colt (n) young male horse. [illegible].

Colter (n) metal piece attached to the plough, ~~[illegible]~~ plough share. [illegible] the front iron of a plough.

Column (n) a round tapering pillar. [illegible] an upright support of a building. [illegible] a body of troops, a body of printed lines

Coma (n) state of long unconsciousness. [illegible] stupor, sleep, stupor

Comatose (a) drowsy, sleepy, affected with coma. [illegible].

Comb (n) a toothed device for cleaning & arranging hair. [illegible]

Combat (n) quarrel, fight, contest, struggle, encounter. [illegible]

Combatant (n) fighter [illegible]

Combative (a) disposed to fight, quarrelsome. [illegible].

Comber (n) a long foaming curling wave. [illegible]

Combination (n) union of a group of things [illegible]

Combine (v.i) unite, join together. [illegible]

Combustibility [illegible]

Combustible (a) liable to take fire, inflammable. [illegible], [illegible] capable of burning

Combustion (n) burning, [illegible], [illegible]

Come (v.i) reach, arrive [illegible], [illegible] draw near, move towards.

Comedian (n) writer of or actor in a comedy. [illegible].

Comedist (n) writer of a comedy [illegible].

Comedy (n) an amusing play with a happy ending. [illegible]. any funny incident. [illegible]. a
C—— humorous play

Comeliness (n) grace, beauty [illegible]
[illegible]

Comely (a) handsome, beautiful, pleasing. [illegible] graceful

Comestibles (n) eatables.

Comet (n) a heavenly body with a tail of light moving round the sun. [illegible] a nebulous heavenly body with a tail.

Comfit (n) a sweetmeat [illegible]

Comfort (n) happiness, ease [illegible] enjoyment. consolation [illegible] relief [illegible]

Comfortable (a) pleasant, happy [illegible] giving comfort [illegible]

Comforter (n) a woollen scarf. [illegible] one who comforts [illegible]

Comic (a) funny, laughable, [illegible]

Comical (a) funny. amusing. [illegible] ridiculous. mirthful —

Coming (a) nearing [illegible]

Comity (n) mutual [illegible] courtesy [illegible] friendliness [illegible] courtesy

Comma (n) mark like this (,) showing a short pause in a sentence [illegible] a punctuation mark. [illegible]

Command (n) order. bidding. [illegible] v.t. take charge of. [illegible]

Commandant (n) commanding officer [illegible]
Commandant the chief [illegible]

Commandeer (n) seize for military purpose [illegible]

Commander (n) one giving orders [illegible], head [illegible] the chief general

army officer [illegible]

Commanding (a) high. [illegible] having impressive or controlling power [illegible]

Commandment (n) divine law or order. [illegible] a precept.

Commando (n) a soldier trained for hard work

Commemorate (v.t) bring back to memory [illegible] celebrate [illegible]

Commemoration (n) solemn celebration. [illegible]

Commence (v.t) to begin. [illegible] originate [illegible]

Commencement (n) beginning [illegible] origin [illegible]

Commend (v.t) praise. [illegible] entrust. give into the care of [illegible]

Commendable (a) praiseworthy [illegible]

Commendation (n) praise [illegible]

Commendatory (a) praising. containing praise [illegible]

Commensurate (a) proportionate, equal in measure or size [illegible] of equal measure [illegible] corresponding [illegible] having a common measure

Commensuration (n) correspondence, equality. [illegible]

Comment (n) explanatory notes. [illegible] remark [illegible] note of explanation. remarks.

x Commentary (n) detailed explanation of difficulties in a book [illegible]. [illegible].

x Commentator (n) writer of a commentary. [illegible], [illegible].

Commerce (n) buying & selling of goods on a large scale esp. with foreign countries. [illegible] international trade, individual trade

Commercial (a) of Large & Scale trade. [illegible] of or concerning trade

Commination (n) threat- [illegible] denunciation [illegible]

Commingle (v. i) mix with or together. blend. [illegible]

Commiserate (a) feel or express pity for. [illegible] condole with Commiseration (n) sympathy. feeling of pity for the sorrow of another. [illegible] pity.

Commissariat (n) army dept. for supply of food or provisions. [illegible] victualling department of an army.

Commissary (n) a deputy. one to whom any charge is given. [illegible] one having charge

Commission (n) doing a right percent paid to an agent on the goods sold by him. [illegible]

Commissioning [illegible]

Commit (v.t.) do a wrong; entrust [illegible] give over to [illegible]

Commitment (n) undertaking. [illegible] Committal.

Committee (n) a body of persons specially appointed to manage a work or business. [illegible]. a closed vessel for night-stool, a closed stool used in evacuating the bowels. [illegible] a body charged with direction or investigation

Commodious (a) roomy spacious [illegible]. Comfortable convenient [illegible]

~~Commodity (n) goods, wares [illegible]~~

Commodities (n) goods, wares. [illegible]

Commodity (n) any article of trade. [illegible] article. profit. Convenience.

Commodore (n) a naval or air force officer of high rank.

Common (a) ordinary, usual general [illegible] of equal ownership. [illegible] shared by many, (n) open land.

Commonalty (n) Common people [illegible] general body of people Commoner (n) one of the Common people [illegible], a member of the H. of Commons. one who is not a noble [illegible] one of the people.

Commonly (ad) usually [illegible]

Commonplace (a) ordinary. [illegible] something quoted as everybody knows. (n) an ordinary saying

Common sense (n) good sense, wisdom. [illegible] ordinary intelligence.

Commons (n) Common people [illegible]. House of Commons.

Commonsense (n) Common intelligence, good sense [illegible] practical sagacity [illegible]

Common weal (n) Common wealth (n) a group of states united by a strong govt. [illegible] govt. of a free state, republic — common good [illegible] the public [illegible]. Commonweal (n) common good.

Commotion (n) disorder tumult [illegible], [illegible]. Confusion, excitement [illegible]

Comm

Commune (n) a small division in a territory with its own form of govt.

Communal (a) relating to the Community [illegible]. owned jointly by all for the common use [illegible] [illegible]

Communalism (n) partiality for a particular community. [illegible]. [illegible] govt. by local authorities [illegible].

Commune (n) a small division of a county with some form of self government. [illegible] [illegible]
(v.i) talk together as friends [illegible]

Communicant (n) a partaker of the holy communion

Communicate (v.t) make known, transmit [illegible] inform. impart. be connected with [illegible]

Communication (n) connection [illegible], intercourse [illegible]. information. [illegible]. exchange of letters. [illegible], [illegible], means of passage [illegible]. act of letting known. [illegible], [illegible].

Communicative (a) ready to give information, talkative, candid [illegible]

Communion (n) intercourse. [illegible] fellowship [illegible], [illegible]. mutual intercourse.

Communique (n) official information or bulletin. [illegible]. [illegible]

Communism (n) the doctrine of common ownership & management of property. [illegible]. [illegible] [illegible]. the theory of equal rights in property

Communist (n) a believer in communism [illegible]

Community (n) class of the same race, religion, beliefs &c [illegible] a body of people [illegible], [illegible]. the public.

Commutation (n) exchange [illegible] [illegible]. change [illegible] [illegible].

Commute (v.t) to exchange, [illegible] one thing for another [illegible], [illegible] to change a punishment for one less severe [illegible]

Comet (n) hair of head, tuft [illegible] [illegible], [illegible], [illegible].

Compact (a) dense [illegible], [illegible], closely packed. brief. [illegible]. thick [illegible], (n) agreement; contract [illegible], [illegible]. an agreement, a league

Companion (n) friend, associate. [illegible]

Companionable (a) friendly, sociable, agreeable. [illegible]

Companionship (n) friendship. [illegible], agreeableness [illegible]

Company (n) persons joined together for a common purpose as trade, business etc. [illegible] part of a regiment [illegible]. gathering of people [illegible]. any association [illegible] trading body [illegible] persons assembled together

Comparable (a) fit to be compared [illegible].

Comparative (a) relative involving comparison [illegible] that may be compared Compare (v.t) place side by side to find out or point out likeness or differences [illegible] examine one against another.

Comparison (n) the act of comparing or finding out likeness or difference [illegible]. [illegible]

Compass (n) an instrument for describing a circle [illegible].

Compartment (n) division of an enclosed space. [illegible] room [illegible], division made by a partition. separate division.

Compass (n) (pl.) an instrument for describing a circle [illegible]. (pl.) an instrument for showing direction magnetic compass [illegible] [illegible] limit, extent, [illegible].
(v.t) surround [illegible] to obtain

Compassion (n) feeling of pity felt for others, sympathy. [illegible]

Compassionate (a) sympathetic, feeling pity for other. [illegible]

Compatibility (n) consistency, agreement [illegible].

Compatible (a) agreeable [illegible] consistent with.

Compatriot (n) fellow countryman [illegible]. Compatriot (a) of the same country.

Compeer (n) an equal [illegible], friend [illegible], companion

Compel (v.t) force, coerce [illegible]

Compendious (a) short, brief. [illegible]

Compendium (n) a summary, digest [illegible], a book containing the summary of a larger one. an abridgement

Compensate (v.t) make amends for, make good the loss. [illegible] (make up for loss or injury)

Compensation (n) recompense, something given to make up for a loss or injury done [illegible]

2

Compete ~~[illegible]~~ (v.i) strive for, to contend. [illegible]

Competence (competency) (n) sufficiency enough to live upon ability, fitness. [illegible] [illegible] for complete.

Competent (a) able, skilful, fit. [illegible] qualified. suitable, sufficient.

Competition (n) healthy rivalry or contest [illegible] rivalry.

Competitive (a) pertaking to competition. [illegible]

Competitor (n) one who competes [illegible] rival [illegible]

Compilation (n) act of compiling or thing compiled. [illegible]

Compile (v.t) select, arrange & put together [illegible]

Complacence (cy) (n) self-satisfaction. [illegible] calm [illegible] pleasure.

Complacent (a) self satisfied or contented [illegible] calm [illegible]

Complain (v.i) express dissatisfaction, express dislike, [illegible] grumble, lament

Complainant (n) one who complains. [illegible] plaintiff [illegible]

Complaint (n) expression of a grievance [illegible] ill-ness, disease [illegible], accusation [illegible] lamentation [illegible]. fault finding

Complaisance (n) readiness to oblige, courtesy. [illegible], civility. [illegible] obliging [illegible]

Complaisant (a) ready to oblige or please others. [illegible] affable [illegible]

Complement (n) that which completes or fulfils. [illegible] counterpart. [illegible]

Complementary (a) that which completes. [illegible] (n) a fitting up.

× Complete (v.t) finish [illegible] (a) finished, ended, thorough. [illegible]

Completion (n) end, fulfilment. [illegible]

× Completely (ad) fully [illegible] totally, entirely.

Complex (a) complicated, involving, very difficult. [illegible] intricate Complexion (n) face colour [illegible], colour [illegible], general appearance [illegible]

Complexity (n) complication, confusion [illegible]

Complexity (n) intricacy, complication [illegible]

Compliance (n) submission, yielding. [illegible], assent [illegible] doing as requested

Compliant (a) yielding, submissive [illegible]

Complicacy (n) compliance, yielding [illegible].

Complication. complication [illegible].

Complicate (a) confused, intricate [illegible] very difficult [illegible] (v.t) to make or render confused Complication (n) confusion, intricacy [illegible] entanglement.

Complicity (n) partnership in a wrong thing [illegible]. state of being an accomplice.

Compliment (n) something said in praise. [illegible] good wishes [illegible]. an expression of regard Complimentary (a) praising expressing praise [illegible]. given free as a mark of respect. [illegible].

Comply (v.i) act as desired by, yield to. [illegible]

Component (n) one of the parts or elements of which a thing is formed [illegible] (a) forming ~~part~~ one of the elements or parts of a thing. [illegible].

Comport (v.i) behave [illegible] agree [illegible]

Comportment (n) behaviour, agreement [illegible].

Compose (v.t) make by putting parts together [illegible], to set types in [illegible]. to calm [illegible]

* Compos mentis (a phrase) sane.

Composed (a) calm, cool, quiet, collected [illegible].

* Composer (n) author.

Composite (a) made of parts, compound. [illegible] mixed. [illegible]

Composition (n) that which is made up of parts, an exercise in writing, a short piece of verse or prose. [illegible] a mixture.

Compositor (n) one who sets types in printing [illegible].

Compost (n) mixture of manure [illegible] manure from decaying things. a mixture of soil and plants.

Composure (n) calmness [illegible].

Compound (v.t) mix together. [illegible]. settle of argument [illegible]. (n) mixture of things. [illegible] an enclosed area with or without buildings [illegible].

Compounder (n) one who mixes medicines. [illegible].

Comprehend (v.t) to grasp with the mind, understand [illegible]. (2) include [illegible]

Comprehensible (a) understandable. [illegible] inclusive. intelligible, capable of being understood

Comprehension (n) understanding, power of the mind [illegible]. inclusion. [illegible].

[illegible]

Comprehensive (a) including much. [illegible]. Capacious [illegible], [illegible]. inclusive; having the power of understanding much, compendious, inclusive

Compress (v.t) press together. squeeze. [illegible]. [illegible] force into [illegible] [illegible]

Compression (n) pressing together into a narrower space [illegible], [illegible]. [illegible].

Comprise (v.t) Consist of, include [illegible]

Compromise (n) mutual amicable settlement of a dispute between parties. [illegible] an agreement by mutual concession.

Compulsion (n) force, coercion. [illegible], [illegible]

Compulsory (a) forced upon [illegible] [illegible] ([illegible]) that cannot be avoided [illegible].

Compunction (n) sorrow for what has been done, remorse [illegible]

Computable (a) Calculable.

Computation (n) reckoning, calculation, estimation. [illegible], [illegible].

Compute (v.t) to reckon, calculate [illegible]. estimate [illegible]

Comrade (n) a close friend [illegible]. [illegible] Companion

Con (v.t) study with or learn by heart [illegible]. [illegible]

(pr.) with, together [illegible]

(ad) against. [illegible], [illegible]. [illegible]

Conarium (n) pineal gland. [illegible]

XConatus (n) effort [illegible] tendency [illegible]

XConation (n) The active part of mind including desire and volition. [illegible]

Concatenate (v.t) link together connect [illegible]

Concatenation (n) linking together as in a chain. [illegible]. [illegible]

Concave (a) curved inward [illegible]. hollow [illegible] arched [illegible]

Concave lens - [illegible]

Conceal (v.t) hide [illegible]. Keep secret [illegible]

Concealment (n) hiding [illegible], place of hiding [illegible].

Concede (v.t) give up, yield, [illegible] surrender. grant [illegible] admit Conceit (n) pride, too high an opinion of oneself [illegible]. fancy, imagination [illegible]. excessive self-esteem. Vanity

Conceited (a) proud [illegible]. Vain

Conceivable (a) thinkable. [illegible]. imaginable.

Conceive (v.t & i) to think, understand. [illegible]. fancy [illegible]. imagine. [illegible] become pregnant [illegible]

Concent (n) harmony of sounds.

~~Conception~~ (n) [illegible]

Concentrate (v.t) bring to a common centre or focus [illegible]. [illegible] boil down to a thick mass [illegible]

~~Concentration~~ [illegible]

Concentrated (a) focussed. [illegible]. boiled down — [illegible]

Concentration (n) [illegible]

Concentric (a) having the same centre [illegible]

Concentric Camp (n) Camp for political prisoners. [illegible]

Concept (n) general notion or idea, thing conceived. [illegible] mental picture. [illegible]

Conception (n) thought [illegible]. idea [illegible]. act of conceiving or growing with child [illegible]

Conceptual (a) pertaining to conception. [illegible]

Concern (n) sorrow, anxiety, care, worry [illegible]. affair [illegible]. business establishment of control [illegible]. serious [illegible], relation [illegible].

Concerning (prep) about, regarding [illegible].

Concernment (n) importance [illegible].

Concerns (n) respect [illegible]

Concent (n) union, agreement, a plan: [illegible]. a musical entertainment [illegible], doing or planning together [illegible] (v.t) plan together [illegible].

Concerted (a) planned together. [illegible]. united [illegible]. harmonious [illegible] arranged.

Concertina (n) a small musical wind instrument with bellows [illegible]

Concerto (n) a musical composition for violin or piano.

Concession (n) permission [illegible]. privilege granted, giving up of something. thing conceded [illegible].

Conch (n) a large twisted shell [illegible]. a spiral shell. sea-shell

Conchology (n) study of shell or science of shell [illegible]

Conciliate (v.t) win over, reconcile, gain over, win the friendly feelings of. [illegible]

Conciliation (n) bringing together those who had quarrelled. [illegible]

Conciliatory (a) peacemaking [illegible].

Concise (a) short, brief. terse. [illegible] meaningful.

Concision (n) brevity, mutilation, circumcision. [illegible]

Conclamation (n) shout of many together. [illegible]

Conclave (n) a secret meeting [illegible]. a secret room [illegible]. body of Cardinals, a secret meeting of Cardinals to elect the Pope. any close meeting or assembly.

Conclavist (n) an attendant on a Cardinal.

Conclude (v.t) to finish, end, close, put a stop to, [illegible]. come to a settlement [illegible] decide [illegible].

Conclusion (n) the result of deep thought, decision, inference [illegible]

what is finally settled in the last part [illegible]

Conclusive (a) final [illegible] deciding, settling

Concoct (v.t) make up. to devise [illegible] fabricate [illegible] digest [illegible]. make up of mixed things [illegible]

Concoction (n) [illegible]

Concomitance(y) (n) going along with, accompaniment [illegible]. agreement [illegible]

Concomitant (a) following, accompanying. [illegible] conjoined, connected with. (n) person or thing that accompanies. companion

[illegible]

Concord (n) union, harmony, agreement. [illegible]

Concordance(y) (n) agreement, accord. [illegible]. a complete index of words [illegible] an index to [illegible]

Concordant (a) agreeing, harmonizing, harmonious [illegible]

Concordat (n) any treaty or agreement, a compact, covenant. [illegible], agreement between the Pope & the sovereign in which both are concerned.

Concourse (n) collection, crowd, gathering. [illegible]. place of meeting [illegible] assembly. confluence, running together [illegible]. co-operation [illegible] - assembly of people.

Concrete (a) having a firm [illegible] material [illegible]. a mixture of sand, gravel, cement used (as building material). [illegible] brought together under one mass.

Concretion (n) a compacted mass. [illegible]

Concubine (n) a woman who lives with a man as his wife without being legally married to him, mistress, paramour. [illegible]

Concupiscence (n) lust, sexual appetite. [illegible] desire for worldly things [illegible]

Concur (v.i) agree with [illegible] coincide, assent [illegible] go together.

Concurrence (n) uniting, agreement, [illegible]. joint action, coincidence.

Concurrent (a) agreeing, joint, running or going together. [illegible] concurring

Concuss (v.t) shake [illegible] forced by threats, [illegible]

Concussion (n) violent shaking or clashing together. [illegible]. injury caused to the brain by heavy blow, shock or fall, [illegible] brain shock [illegible] a violent clashing together.

Condemn (v.t) blame [illegible] treat with contempt [illegible]. pronounce guilty. [illegible] declare or pronounce unfit for building [illegible] (Condemn a building)

Condemnatory (a) condemning blaming.

Condensation (n) becoming or making thicker. [illegible]. making short [illegible] consolidation, solidifying [illegible]

Condense (v.t) make thicker or harden [illegible] shorten [illegible] compress [illegible] liquefy [illegible] thicken, thicken.

Condenser (n) a machine for changing vapour into liquid a vessel for collecting electricity.

Condescend (v.i) lower oneself patronise, favour, stoop. [illegible] be affable to inferiors.

Condescendingly (a) favouring. condescend to inferiors [illegible] kind to inferiors, patronisingly.

141

Condescension (n) lowering oneself to favour inferiors. [illegible]

Condign (a) deserved, proper quite fit, adequate [illegible]. condign punishment [illegible]. well merited, worthy.

Condiment (n) thing used to give relish to food. seasoning. [illegible] sauce. seasoning [illegible]

Condition (n) state, position, circumstance. [illegible]. stipulation. term [illegible]. rank [illegible]

Conditional (a) having a condition [illegible] depending on a condition

Conditioned (a) depending [illegible] relative. [illegible]

Condole (v.i) feel pity or express sympathy for [illegible] share another's sorrow

Condolence (n) sympathetic expression of pity or sympathy [illegible] sympathetic [illegible]

× Condone (v.t) excuse, pardon, forgive overlook. [illegible]

× Condonation (n) excusing. [illegible] forgiving, pardoning.

Condor (n) a large vulture [illegible].

Conduce (v.i) help to produce contribute to. [illegible] Contribute to.

Conducive (a) helping toward. [illegible] tending to favourable —

Conduct (v.t) to lead [illegible]. guide [illegible]. manage [illegible] behave [illegible] (n) behaviour [illegible], [illegible]. management [illegible]. escort. [illegible].

Conduction (n) transmission, conducting or transmitting property [illegible]. act of conducting [illegible].

Conductivity (n) [illegible]

Conductivity (n [illegible])

Conductor (n) a guide or manager [illegible]. one who is in charge of bus, train &c, that which has the property of transmitting heat, electricity &c. [illegible]. one who conducts.

Conduit (n) a pipe or channel for carrying water or any kind of fluid. [illegible].

[illegible]

Cone (n) a solid figure with circular bottom with sides tapering to a point [illegible] tapering fruit of trees like pine, a pointed substance with a circular base [illegible].

Confabulate (v.i) to chat. [illegible].

Confabulation (n) chatting [illegible] ([illegible]) a familiar chat.

Confect (v.t) prepare [illegible] make the sweets [illegible].

Confection (n) a sweetmeat [illegible]. a mixture or compound [illegible].

Confectionary (n) a place where sweetmeats are made or kept [illegible]. sweetmeat.

Confectioner (n) one who makes or sells sweetmeats.

Confectionery (n) sweetmeats in general [illegible] a confectioner's work [illegible].

a leagued body.

Confederacy (n) league, union [illegible], conspiracy [illegible] & [illegible] (league or states united by a league) league of states.

Confederate (n) united, combined [illegible]. (n) ally, accomplice [illegible] (a) banded together.

Confederation (n) a league or union of states or princes. [illegible]. an alliance.

Confer (v.t) give, grant, bestow [illegible]. (v.i) talk together, or consult [illegible].

Conference (n) a meeting to discuss matters. meeting for discussion or consultation [illegible].

Confess (v.t) to admit as wrong doing wrong. [illegible].

Confessedly (ad) admittedly.

Confession (n) admission of wrong doing [illegible]. (2) admission of sinful doing to a R.C. priest by a catholic. [illegible].

Confessional (n) a seat in which the R.C. priest sits to hear confession of sin. [illegible].

Confessor (n) one who confesses his or her sinful action or deeds [illegible]. one who hears confession [illegible]. a priest who hears confession.

a priest who hears confession

Confetti (n) sweet meats, bits of paper thrown at bride and bridegroom.

Confidant (n) one trusted with a secret. [illegible] a bosom friend [illegible]. [illegible] one to whom secrets are confided.

Confidante (n) a female bosom friend or a woman entrusted with a secret [illegible].

Confide (v.t & i) trust [illegible] or have faith in [illegible] trust, tell privately.

Confidence (n) trust, belief [illegible].

Confident (a) sure, positive [illegible] ~~[illegible]~~

Confidential (a) secret, private [illegible]

Confidently (ad) secretly [illegible] in confidence

Confiding (a) trusting [illegible]

Configuration (n) shape, external outline. [illegible]

Confine (v.t) shut up in a small place, imprison. limit [illegible] (n) limit boundary [illegible].

Confinement (n) imprisonment [illegible], close restraint. detention lying-in [illegible]

Confirm (v.t) strengthen, make certain, ascertain [illegible] establish firmly.

Confirmation (n) strengthening [illegible]

Confirmatory (a) Confirming.

Confirmed (a) strengthened, not likely to change. [illegible] fixed, settled.

Confiscate (v.t) appropriate to the state by authority [illegible] annex / attach seize by force [illegible] seize as forfeited [illegible]

Confiscation (n) appropriation by force or authority. [illegible] seizure by legal power.

Conflagrate (v.t) burn up [illegible] act of taking fire, [illegible]

Conflagration (n) great fire [illegible] burning. destructive fire.

Conflagrationist (n) [illegible]

Conflict (n) quarrel, struggle contest [illegible]. opposition [illegible] disagreement

Conflicting (a) contradicting each other, opposing [illegible] disagreement [illegible]

~~Conform (v.i)~~

Confluence (n) meeting place [illegible] a flowing together [illegible] conflux [illegible]

Confluent (a) flowing together [illegible] mingling. [illegible] joining, meeting [illegible] (n) a stream uniting or flowing with another.

Conform (v.t & i) make or be similar [illegible]. comply [illegible] adapt to

Conformable (a) suitable [illegible]

Conformation (n) shape, build [illegible] structure

Conformity (n) likeness [illegible]. agreement [illegible]

Confound (v.t) mistake one thing for another. to confuse [illegible] Confuse [illegible] destroy [illegible] defeat [illegible] abash.

stand in front of. to face.

× Confront (v.t) meet face to face. [illegible]. resist attack [illegible], oppose, [illegible]

× Confraternity (n) brotherhood [illegible].

× Confrere (n) Colleague [illegible]

Confuse (v.t) derange, [illegible]. bewilder [illegible] abash.

Confused (a) bewildered [illegible]

Confusion (n) bewilderment. [illegible] disorder. [illegible] the condition of being confused.

Confutation (n) disproof, refutation [illegible] proving to be false or wrong. [illegible]

Confute (v.t) prove to be false [illegible] disprove. [illegible]

Congeal (v.i) become hard [illegible]. freeze [illegible] [illegible] solidify permanently[illegible]
Congedeline (n) permission to elect

Congeneric (a) akin to, of the same genus. [illegible]

Congenial (a) agreeable, pleasant [illegible] similar in spirit

Congenital (a) natural [illegible] inherited [illegible]

Congeries (n) collection aggregation, mass. collection of particles combination. heap, pile. [illegible] to accumulate.

Congest. (v.t)(v.i) accumulate [illegible]. overcrowd [illegible]

Congested (a) accumulated [illegible], overcrowded [illegible]. (Congested area. [illegible]) [illegible]

Congestion (n) overcrowding [illegible], [illegible] (Congestion of blood [illegible] [illegible])

Conglomerate (v.t) collect into a mass [illegible]

Conglomeration (n) collection, gathering into a mass [illegible] [illegible]. accumulation gathering together [illegible]

Conglutinate (v.i) stick together. [illegible]

Conglutination (n) sticking together [illegible].

Congratulate (v.t) to wish one joy, felicitate, compliment [illegible] expressing gladness on achievement

Congratulation (n) wishing one joy, felicitation, compliment [illegible]

Congratulatory (a) complimentary, felicitating. [illegible]

Congregate (v.i) assembly crowd, collect together. flock together, come together [illegible]

Congregation (n) meeting [illegible] [illegible] gathering [illegible], assemblage.

Congregational (a)

Congress (n) a large meeting for discussion on various topics [illegible], legislature, political assembly of U.S.A. [illegible] a political party in India. ~~[illegible]~~ [illegible]

Congruence(cy) (n) agreement harmony. suitableness. [illegible]

Congruent (a) agreeing, suitable, [illegible]

Congruity (n) suitability. [illegible]

Congruous (a) suitable, fitting [illegible].

Conical (a) Cone shaped.

Conifer (n) a Cone bearing tree,

Coniferous (a) Cone bearing or Cone shaped. [illegible]

× Conjecture (n) guess. opinion formed without proof. [illegible]. supposition. surmise.

× Conjectural (a) doubtful, depending on guesswork, [illegible]. involving supposition

Conjoin (V.t) join together, Combine [illegible], unite.

Conjoint (a) Combined, united.

Conjointly (ad) unitedly [illegible].

Conjugal (a) of marriage or married life [illegible] of husband & wife [illegible]. matrimonial; connubial. relating to marriage [illegible]

Conjugate (V.t) give the chief various parts of a verb, inflect a verb. [illegible] unite explain [illegible] express the parts of a verb [illegible]

Conjugation (n) giving the different parts of a verb [illegible]

Conjunct (a) jointly connected [illegible] happening at the same time

Conjunction (n) union [illegible], joining word [illegible]

Conjunctive (a) uniting.

Conjuncture (n) crisis. [illegible] critical point

Conjuration (n) practice of magical arts. enchantment [illegible] tricks of hand [illegible]. incantation [illegible] imprecation binding by oath [illegible]. charm [illegible] juggling. earnest request [illegible] spell, charm, incantation, exorcism.

Conjure summoning of spirit.

Conjure (V.i) to juggle, do tricks of hand, do sorcery. do witchcraft, card play practise sleight of hand, [illegible]

Conjurer (n) one who performs tricks of hand. sorcerer, magician. wizard, necromancer, charmer, exorcist one who practises legerdemain

Conjuror (n) Juggler [illegible] enchanter.

Conjury (n) hand tricks, enchantment, Juggling. [illegible], magic [illegible]

× Connate (a) existing from birth innate [illegible] born together [illegible]. inborn, innate —

× Connatural (a) inborn born or produced at the same time join together, associate,

Connect (v.t.) join or fasten together [illegible]. [illegible]. establish relation between [illegible]

Connection (n) relationship. [illegible] Connecting. [illegible] That which connects [illegible]

Connective (n) That which connects. Conjunction.

Connivance (n) pretending not to have seen [illegible] wink at [illegible] a secret understanding

Connive (v.i.) be aware of but pretend not to have seen [illegible] wink at.

Connoisseur (n) a person with critical judgement, [illegible] a critical expert Connotation (n) implication, suggestion, implied meaning or sense [illegible]. [illegible],

[illegible]
Connote (v.t.) imply, suggest. [illegible]. [illegible]

Connubial (a) of marriage, nuptial, conjugal [illegible] & matrimonial [illegible]

Conquer (v.t.+i) gain victory over [illegible]. [illegible] subdue [illegible]. overcome [illegible].

Conquerable (a) that may be conquered [illegible]

Conqueror (n) winner, [illegible].

Conquest (n) victory [illegible]. conquered thing or country. [illegible].

146 (Consanguineous)
Consanguine (a) related by blood or of the same family. [illegible]

Consanguinity (n) relationship by blood [illegible].

inner Conscience (n) faculty judging right or wrong in actions. [illegible]. an inner sense of duty [illegible].

Conscientious (a) guided by conscience [illegible] having strong duty [illegible] scrupulous

Conscious (a) aware of [illegible]. intentional [illegible] having perception of.

Consciousness (n) mental power to feel, know etc. [illegible] life energy [illegible]

Conscript (v.t.) enrol in the army or navy by compulsion [illegible]
(n) a compulsory soldier.

Conscription (n) compulsory or forcible enrolment in the military service [illegible] forced service on war work.

Consecrate (v.t.) make holy or sacred, [illegible]. dedicate for a holy purpose. [illegible].

Consecration (n) dedication for a holy or sacred purpose. [illegible]

Consecutive (a) successive happening one after the other in order, [illegible] following uninterruptedly [illegible] succeeding in order.

Consensus (n) agreement of opinion [illegible] general agreement [illegible]

Consent (n) permission assent. [illegible] agree, to comply

Consequence (n) result [illegible] (2) importance [illegible]. (a man of consequence [illegible].) That which comes after [illegible]

Consequent (a) coming as a result [illegible] resulting Consequential (a) pompous, stiff, grand boastful, important [illegible]

Consequently (ad) as a result of [illegible]

Conservancy (n) preservation [illegible]. an official body entrusted with the duty of preserving forest, rivers, fishing, minerals. [illegible]

Conservation (n) preservation [illegible]

Conservatism (n) policy of [illegible] change [illegible]

Conservative (a) opposed to change [illegible] (n) one opposed to sudden changes or innovation, non-changer [illegible] a political party

Conservator (n) protector, [illegible]

× Conservatory (n) a place for tender plants. [illegible] a greenhouse.

× Conservatoire (Conservatorium) a school of music. [illegible]

Conserve (v.t) protect from decay [illegible] preserve [illegible] /cakes, preserved fruits. [illegible]

Consider (v.t) think deeply [illegible] ponder

Considerable (a) more than a little. much [illegible]. worth considering [illegible]. of some importance, important. [illegible]

Considerate (a) considerative, thoughtful, prudent. [illegible] thinking for the good of others [illegible]. kind [illegible]

Consideration (n) ([illegible]) regard for the good of others [illegible], payment, reward. [illegible] importance, deliberation

Consign (v.t) trust with. hand over to, entrust, trust with, put in charge of. [illegible]

Consignee (n) person to whom (goods) something is entrusted. [illegible]

Consignment (n) goods entrusted with. [illegible] things consigned

Consist (v.i) contain, be composed of [illegible] agree, exist

Consistence (cy) (n) thickness, density [illegible]. harmony [illegible], firmness [illegible]

Consistent (a) thick [illegible] not contradictory, agreeing [illegible], firm [illegible], uniform, not changing [illegible]

Consistently (ad) in conformity [illegible]

Consistory (n) a place of assembly [illegible]

Consolation (n) comfort [illegible]. solace, alleviation of misery. a feeling [illegible] sympathy.

Consolatory (a) comfortable, giving solace or comfort [illegible]

Console (v.t) soothe, pacify. comfort [illegible]

Consols (n) short for consolidated annuities

Consolidate (v.t.) solidify, harden [illegible] unite. [illegible] make solid.

Consolidation (n) solidifying. [illegible] unity etc [illegible]

Consols (n) part of the B. national debt consisting of several stocks consolidated into one fund. [illegible]

Consommé (n) meat soup made by slow boiling. [illegible]

Consonance (n) harmony [illegible] agreement

Consonant (a) agreeable [illegible] consistent [illegible] (n) a letter in an alphabet which is not a vowel. [illegible] any letter except a vowel.

Consonantal (a) of a consonant.

Consort (n) husband or wife esp. of a ruler. [illegible]. partner. companion associate. [illegible] (v.i.) associate, keep company with [illegible]

Conspectus (n) a short survey, very short survey. synopsis. [illegible]

× Conspicuous (a) easily seen clear. [illegible] prominent important. [illegible] (Conspicuous personality, rocket)

× Conspicuity (n) clearness [illegible] (Conspicuity)

Conspicuousness (n) clearness.

Conspiracy (n) plot, joining together for a bad purpose. [illegible]

Conspirator (n) one who is a partner in a secret evil plan. [illegible]

Conspire (v.i.) to plot together [illegible] plan together secretly for an evil purpose.

Constable (n) a police man, a peace keeping official, [illegible]

Constabulary (n) police force [illegible] of police. a body of constables.

Constancy (n) unchangeableness firmness, fixity. [illegible] faithfulness [illegible] fidelity.

Constant (a) firm. fixed [illegible] faithful [illegible]. Continual, going on without stop. [illegible] never changing

Constantly (adv) firmly, [illegible] always, ever [illegible], often [illegible]

Constellate (v.t.) cluster together [illegible]

Constellation (n) a group of fixed stars with a name. [illegible] gathering of stars supposed to influence human life [illegible]

Consternate (v.t.) to fill with dismay or fear. [illegible]

Consternation (n) dismay terror [illegible] great fear

Constipate (v.t) [illegible] make the movement of bowels irregular [illegible] make costive stop use. [illegible].

Constipation (n) irregular and insufficient movement of the bowels [illegible]

~~Constitute~~ (v.t) blocked state of bowels [illegible]. Costiveness Constituency (n) an area sending a representative to l. assembly or pt. [illegible]. electorate) body of electors [illegible].

Constituent (n) component part ingredient [illegible] - elementary [illegible]

Constitute (v.t) make up; form [illegible]. set up [illegible], establish appoint [illegible] establish.

Constitution (n) laws upon which the govt. of a country is built up, [illegible] governmental system. build of the body or mind. [illegible] mental physical state [illegible].

Constitutional (a) inherent, natural [illegible] lawful [illegible].

Constitutionally (ad) naturally [illegible].

Constrain (v.t) force. compel, urge [illegible]

Constrained (a) forced [illegible] lacking ease & comfort [illegible], not natural [illegible].

Constraint (n) irresistible force [illegible], necessity. [illegible]. restraint [illegible]. compelling confinement.

Constrict (v.t) compress, contract press together tightly. [illegible] bind close.

Constricted (a) pressed together tightly [illegible], compressed contracted Constriction (n) contraction. [illegible],

Constrictor (n) a large kind of snake which crushes its prey before devouring, [illegible] a contracting muscle [illegible].

Constringe (v.t) cause to contract, compress. [illegible]

Constringency (n) contracting quality or power [illegible].

Constringent (a) having the quality of contracting. [illegible]

Construct (v.t) build, put up. make, [illegible].

Constructed (a) built, made [illegible]

Construction (n) building [illegible] meaning, interpretation. [illegible]

Constructive (a) creative [illegible].

Construe (v.t) interpret explain [illegible]. put into another language [illegible]

Constupration (n) ravishment, [illegible].

Consubstantial (a) having the same essence [illegible] of the same nature

Consubstantiation (n) the doctrine that the wine & bread at the lord's supper is changed into the body & blood of Christ.

Consuetude (n) Custom [illegible] [illegible].

Consul (n) a representative of a country in a foreign country to look after the interests of its citizens & commerce. [illegible]. one of the two magistrates of the old Roman Republic. agent, representative abroad.

Consular (a) of a Consul.

Consulate (n) the residence of a Consul. office of a Consul.

Consult (v.t.-i) ask the advice of, take the advice [illegible], [illegible]. confer with [illegible] [illegible].

Consultant (n) one of who seeks advice or information, one taking part in consultation.

Consultation (n) asking or taking advice. [illegible]. Conference [illegible]. deliberation. [illegible]. an interview between a professional man & his client or patient.

Consume (v.t) eat or swallow [illegible] വിഴുങ്ങുക. waste or destroy [illegible]. destroy, burn up.

Consumer (n) one who eats or uses. [illegible] [illegible]

Consummate (a) full, complete, perfect [illegible]. (v.t) complete [illegible]. [illegible] end.

Consummation (n) Completing fulfilment. [illegible]

Consumpt (n) quantity consumed; a wasting disease.

Consumption (n) wasting disease [illegible]. eating up. [illegible] wasting away. a pulmonary disease.

Consumptive (n) one suffering from wasting disease [illegible].

Contact (n) touch [illegible] associate with [illegible]. (n) Connection [illegible]. [illegible]

Contagion (n) Communication (passing on) of disease by touch or contact with an infected person or thing [illegible]. a disease which spreads by contact [illegible]. infection

Contagious (a) spreading by touch or example. [illegible] infectious [illegible]. capable of infection.

Contain (v.t) hold within, include. [illegible], [illegible] [illegible] Control [illegible] restrain.

Container (n) a vessel or box for holding things [illegible].

Contaminate (v.t) make dirty or impure [illegible] pollute [illegible]. pollute. corrupt, taint.

Contamination (n) impurity pollution [illegible]. [illegible]

Contemn (v.t) disregard, despise. Look down upon [illegible].

Contemplate (v.t) Think deeply of, reflect [illegible] meditate [illegible] consider deeply

Contemplation (n) deep & serious thought [illegible] meditation [illegible]

Contemplative (a) thoughtful [illegible]

Contemporaneous (a) existing or happening at the same time [illegible] ([illegible])

Contemporary (a) one living at the same time as another. [illegible] one who exists at the same time, a contemporary.

Contempt (n) scorn, disregard [illegible], [illegible]. [illegible]

Contemptible (a) mean, vile [illegible], [illegible], [illegible]. [illegible] contemptible (a) despicable.

Contemptuous (a) disdainful showing contempt [illegible]

Contend (v.i) argue, dispute debate [illegible]. [illegible] strive, struggle [illegible]. [illegible] struggle

Contendent (n) one who contends [illegible]

Contending (a) striving

X Content (a) what is contained except which volume capacity, substance, satisfaction, [illegible], [illegible] [illegible]. [illegible]. [illegible] (a) satisfied, pleased, satisfaction.

Contention (n) strife, debate, argument, strife, conflict. [illegible], [illegible]. [illegible], [illegible].

Contentious (a) quarrelsome relating to dispute. [illegible]. [illegible] quarrelsome

X Contented (a) satisfied, content [illegible] - [illegible]

Contentment (n) satisfaction [illegible].

~~Conterminal (a)~~

Contents (n) the list of chapters sections in a book [illegible]. [illegible], [illegible] what is contained, index.

151

Conterminal (a) adjacent.

Conterminous (a) having a common boundary. contiguous. co-extensive coextensive

Contest (n) debate, strife, argument, [illegible]. [illegible]. [illegible] quarrel. fight [illegible] dispute

Contestation (n) dispute. [illegible] [illegible].

Context (n) circumstances, [illegible] connecting passage connection, environment [illegible], [illegible]. [illegible] words accompanying & affecting the meaning of quoted words, the place in a book to which certain part belongs

X Contiguous (a) adjoining [illegible] [illegible]. placed near enough so as to touch.

X Contiguity (n) nearness [illegible] [illegible]

Continence (n) self-restraint control of ones desires. [illegible] [illegible]. [illegible].

Continent (n) one of the five large divisions of the land-surface of the earth. [illegible] [illegible]. a large division of earth's surface mainland

Continental (a) of the continent [illegible]. [illegible] [illegible] continental shelf [illegible]

Contingency (n) accidental or chance happening [illegible]. casual or incidental expenses [illegible]. critical moment. [illegible].

Contingent (a) uncertain, incidental. [illegible]. [illegible] a dependent upon uncertain happening [illegible]. division of an army a group or company [illegible]. [illegible] [illegible], [illegible].

Continual (a) uninterrupted unceasing incessant [illegible]. [illegible] [illegible]. frequent [illegible]

Continuation [illegible] (n) going on without stopping, prolongation [illegible], [illegible], [illegible].

Continue (v.t) go on, keep on prolong. [illegible]. [illegible]

Continuity (n) uninterrupted advance [illegible]. [illegible]

Continuous (a) non-stopping [illegible], [illegible], [illegible] [illegible]

Contort (v.t) bend out of natural shape, distort [illegible], [illegible]

Contortion (n) distortion, bending out of natural shape [illegible], [illegible], [illegible].

Contortionist (n) person clever at distorting body. [illegible] [illegible].

Contour (n) shape, form, outline [illegible], [illegible], [illegible]: [illegible]

Contra (prefix) against, opposite [illegible].

Contraband (a) prohibited, forbidden. [illegible]. [illegible] [illegible], [illegible] [illegible]. [illegible] illegal [illegible]. excluded by law.

C (n) smuggled or prohibited goods. [illegible] Contrabandist (n) a smuggler [illegible]

Contraception (n) prevention of pregnancy or conception. [illegible]

Contraceptive (a) preventing conception. [illegible] [illegible] (n) means of preventing conception [illegible]

Contract (v.i) become smaller in size, shrink draw together, bargain [illegible], [illegible], [illegible] [illegible]. (n) a formal or legal agreement. [illegible] [illegible].

Contraction (n) shrinking. [illegible] [illegible]. [illegible]. abbreviating [illegible]. [illegible], [illegible].

Contractor (n) one who undertakes a contract [illegible]

Contradict (v.t&i) say against deny, assert the contrary [illegible], [illegible] [illegible]

Contradiction (n) denial, opposing, saying against. inconsistency [illegible], [illegible]. [illegible]. [illegible]

Contradictory (a) opposed inconsistent [illegible]. [illegible]. contrary. Contradistinction (n) distinguish by contrasting in Contrariwise (a) adverse, opposed [illegible].

Contrariwise (a) on the other hand [illegible]. [illegible], in the contrary way. in the opposite way. Contrariety (n) things opposed.

Contrary (a) against opposite adverse [illegible] [illegible]. [illegible]. inconsistent.

Contrast (v.t) to show difference between [illegible]. [illegible] show difference on comparison [illegible]. (n) difference [illegible] [illegible] - standing [illegible] in opposition [illegible] [illegible] Contraposition (n) [illegible]

Contravene (v.t) transgress, oppose, violate, infringe. [illegible] [illegible] [illegible], break

Contravention (n) violation, transgression. [illegible], [illegible]. opposition.

Contribute (v.t) pay a share. to give. [illegible]. [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]. Contributory (a) helping. [illegible]. [illegible]

Contribution (n) subscription [illegible]. help [illegible]. payment made in aid of a common fund. [illegible]

Contributor (n) one who contributes Contrite (a) feeling sorry for a wrong action. [illegible] repentant, penitent, penitent.

Contrition (n) sorrow for a sin, fault or wrong action [illegible] repentance. grief, remorse.

Contrivance (n) device, plan, invention. [illegible]

Contrive (v.t) devise, invent [illegible] to project.

Control (v.t) check [illegible] (n) device for checking the speed of a machine. [illegible], command, direct.

Controller (n) one who controls or regulates, a device for regulating. [illegible]

Controlling — [illegible] one who checks accounts [illegible] a checker of accounts.

Controlling (a) checking [illegible]

Controversial (a) open to dispute, debatable. [illegible] disputable.

Controversy (n) contention, dispute. argument, quarrel. [illegible] argument. written discussion.

Controvert (v.t) to argue against, dispute, oppose. deny. [illegible] to refuse, to deny.

Contumacious (a) disobedient, stubborn, obstinate, crooked. [illegible]

Contumacy (n) disobedience, obstinacy. [illegible] resistance to authority.

Contumely (n) insolence, reproach, haughtiness [illegible] rudeness haughtiness.

Contund (v.t) to bruise [illegible]

Contuse (v.t) bruise [illegible].

Contusion (n) bruise [illegible].

Contusive (a) liable to bruise [illegible].

Conundrum (n) a riddle, a puzzling or confusing question. [illegible]

Convalesce (v.i) recover health & strength after illness. [illegible]

Convalescence (n) getting back health & strength slowly after illness. [illegible] recovery of health.

Convection (n) transmission of heat or electricity [illegible] by heat by currents.

Convene (t.v) call together, summon [illegible] assemble.

Convener (n) one who convenes a meeting. [illegible]

Convenience (n) advantage, fitness, suitability [illegible]

Convenient (a) suitable, advantageous [illegible] fit, at hand. near Convent (n) a community of nunnery. a religious of monks of nuns. [illegible], an association of people leading a religious life secluded from the world.

Conventicle (n) a secret forbidden meeting for any of meeting. any private forbidden meeting. [illegible] a place of worship.

Convention (n) established custom. a common usage, assembly. [illegible] Conference [illegible] special meeting for a specified purpose. a temporary treaty [illegible].

of commonusage

Conventional (a) depending on custom [illegible]

Converge (v.i) meet at a point [illegible] join together. [illegible] come together.) tend to the same point. tend to one point Convergence (n) -cy) approach - ment to a point. [illegible] tending [illegible] coming together.)

Convergent (a) tending to meet at a point. [illegible]

Converging (a) approaching.

Conversable (a) sociable, disposed to converse. [illegible]

Conversance (n) familiarity [illegible]

Conversant (a) familiar with [illegible] well studied [illegible] well acquainted with (having knowledge of)

Conversation (n) familiar friendly talk. [illegible]

Conversational (a) fit for familiar talk [illegible] well versed in talking

Conversationalist [illegible]

Converse (v.i) talk freely and familiarly with. [illegible] (a) opposite, reversed in order. [illegible] (n) something which is the opposite of another. [illegible] have intercommunication

Conversion (n) change from one thing to another [illegible]. change of religion [illegible] transformation change from one opinion to another

Convert (v.t) change. transform [illegible], change one's religion, party etc for another. [illegible] (n) one who has changed his religion, party etc [illegible]

Convertible (a) changeable transformable. [illegible]

Convex [illegible]

Convex (a) curved outwards spherical [illegible] bulging to external roundness.

Convey (v.t) carry, bear [illegible] to transmit, steal.

Conveyance (n) carriage vehicle [illegible] means of transporting. a deed transferring Conveyancer (n) a conveyance writer.

Convict (n) one found guilty [illegible] (v.t) find guilty [illegible] pronounce [illegible] to pronounce or declare guilty

Convicted (a) found guilty or punished. [illegible]

Conviction (n) firm belief [illegible] finding guilty [illegible] proof of guilt;

Convince (v.t) make to believe by arguments. [illegible] satisfy

Convincingly (ad) in a persuading manner, [illegible]

Convivial (a) merry, jolly [illegible] joyful,

Conviviality (n) merriment [illegible]

[illegible]
Convocation (n) meeting, [illegible], [illegible] special meeting of a university to confer degrees [illegible]. meeting of the clergy. [illegible] a synod

Convoke (v.t) call together, [illegible] summon Convene

Convolute (v.t) twist or roll together [illegible]

Convolution (n) rolling, twisting, [illegible] fold [illegible]. [illegible]

Convolve (v.t) roll together [illegible]

Convoy (n) a protecting force [illegible] warships escort [illegible] protecting merchant ships [illegible] protective force [illegible] accompany for protection

Convulse (v.t) shake violently, [illegible] have fits [illegible] agitate

Convulsion (n) violent shaking [illegible]. involuntary contraction of the muscles. [illegible]. shaking fit.

Convulsive (a) spasmodic [illegible]

Cony (Coney) (n) a rabbit [illegible]

Coo (n) cry of the dove [illegible] [illegible]. talk fondly, murmur making love. [illegible]

Cook (v.t) prepare food by heat [illegible]. (v.t) concoct [illegible] falsify. [illegible]

Cook (n) one who prepares food or cooks [illegible]

Cooker (n) a special apparatus for cooking [illegible]

Cookery (n) art or science of cooking. [illegible]

Cookie (n) a thin flat sweet cake bun. [illegible]

Cooky (n) a female cook [illegible]

Cool (a) somewhat moderately cold [illegible]. calm, not excited. [illegible]. (v.t,i) make or become cool. [illegible] become calm [illegible]

Coolie (n) labourer. an oriental labourer [illegible]

Coolly (ad) in a cool manner. [illegible]

Coom (n) coal-dust [illegible] dust in general [illegible]

Coop (n) a covering basket for fowls or small animals. a tub or basket [illegible] barrel [illegible] (v.t) shut up in a cage, put in a barrel. confine [illegible]

Cooper (n) one who makes baskets, barrels etc.

Cooperage (n) workshop of a cooper.

Co- (pref) together [illegible]

Co-operate (v.i) work together. [illegible] join together [illegible] work, act with another.

Co-operation (n) joint work. [illegible]

Co-operative (a) working together [illegible]

Co-operative society (n) a society or association for various works the profits of which go to the members [illegible]

Co-operative store (n) shop run by a co-operative society. [illegible] ([illegible])

Co-operator (n) member of a co-operative society [illegible]

Co-opt (v.t) take into ~~[illegible]~~ body a society more members, with the permission of the already members. [illegible]

Co-option or Co-optation (n) election into an association by its own members

Co-ordinate (v.t) combine or harmonise. bring together

[illegible] (a) of equal rank or kind. ranking the same [illegible]

Co-ordination (n) similar elements

Co-ordination (n) act of bringing together. [illegible]

Coot (n) a small waterbird with a short tail [illegible] (short tailed waterfowl with a white spot)

Cop (n) top [illegible]. [illegible] (v.t) Catch [illegible]

Copal. (n) a hard kind of resin from which a kind of varnish is made. [illegible] a resinous substance

Co-partner (n) associate, joint partner. [illegible] concerned.

Co-partnership (n) sharing gain by employees and employer.

Cope (v.i) ~~[illegible]~~. struggle or contend with. [illegible] cope. covering [illegible]. a clergyman's hood or robe [illegible]

X Copestone (n) the topmost stone on a wall or pillar, coping stone [illegible]

X Copeck (n) a Russian coin of small value.

Copious (a) very many, plentiful [illegible]

Copper (n) a hard brownish metal [illegible] 2. copper coin [illegible] 3. a large copper vessel for boiling water

Copperas (n) [illegible] sulphate [illegible]

Copperhead (n) a kind of poisonous snake found in U.S.A.

Coppersmith (n) one working in copper [illegible]

X Coppice (n) brushwood, copse [illegible]. a wood of low growth

✓ Copra (n) dried kernel of coconut

Copse (n) a ~~growth~~ wood of small ~~trees~~ growth thicket [illegible]

Coppice, copse wood formed from the stumps of cut down trees.

✓ Copy (n) mass of cut wood [illegible]

Coptic (n) descendant of the ancient Egyptians.

Copula (n) connecting link, a tie, bond. connecting word [illegible]

Copulate (v.i) have sexual union [illegible] unite

Copulation (n) act of copulating [illegible]

Copulative (a) connecting [illegible].

Copy (v.t) write down [illegible] imitate [illegible] transcribe by looking at what another is writing (n) [illegible]

(n) something exactly like another [illegible] an imitation; one specimen of a printed book or paper [illegible] imitation [illegible]

Copyhold (n) Land held of a manor.

Copyist (n) one who copies, a copier [illegible], a professional document writer. [illegible]

Copyright (n) sole right of a person to reproduce his own work or works (print or writing). [illegible] right in an original production) [illegible] sole right to reproduce one's work.

Coquet (v.i.) flirt [illegible], try to attract, trifle with love, [illegible]

Coquetry (n) flirting, show of love [illegible]

Coquette (n) a flirt. [illegible]

Coom (n) a grain measure

Coracle (n) a small rowing boat of wicker work covered with skin or oil cloth. [illegible]

Coracoid (a) shaped like a crow's beak. [illegible]

Coral (n) a hard substance white formed in the sea by the skeletons of very small sea insects called coral insects [illegible]

Coralline [illegible]

X Corbel (n) a wall bracket, a stone support for a wall or yard [illegible]. a projection from a wall.

3 | Corbie (n) a crow [illegible].

X Corban (n) alms vessel [illegible], a box or treasury in a church for gift money [illegible] anything offered to God [illegible]

Corcass (n) a marshy flooded land by a river [illegible]

Cord (n) rope [illegible]

Cordage (n) quantity of ropes, the rigging of a ship. [illegible]

Cordate (a) shaped like heart; [illegible]

Cordial (a) coming from a warm heart, hearty, sincere, affectionate. [illegible] (n) [illegible] a refreshing or stimulating medicinal or exhilarating drink. [illegible] ([illegible]) anything which revives the heart.

Cordiality (n) friendliness [illegible].

Cordially (ad) heartily. [illegible]

Cordite (n) powerful smokeless explosive, smokeless gunpowder.

Cordon (n) a ring or circle of police or army formed to keep off persons. [illegible] (a guarding line) protection ring or circle [illegible].

Cordwainer (n) a shoemaker; a worker in Cordwain

Core (n) kernel, [illegible], important part of anything. [illegible] Centre [illegible] heart [illegible]. inner part.

Co-respondent (n) joint defendant [illegible]

Coriander (n) an aromatic plant, its seed used as seed [illegible]

Cork (n) bark of cork oak used commonly as a stopper for bottles [illegible]. (v.t.) stop, or close shut with a cork. [illegible]

Corkborer (n) [illegible]

Corkscrew (n) a spiral screw for pulling out the cork of a bottle. [illegible]

Cormorant (n) a large dirty sea bird used for fishing. [illegible] a glutton, one who eats greedily too much. [illegible]

Corn (n) grain, seed of any kind of cereal such as wheat, maize [illegible], a painful hard growth on foot caused especially by wearing tight shoes [illegible]

Cornea (n) transparent or glassy covering of eyeball [illegible]

Corner (n) meeting place of two lines or two sides of a wall [illegible] (angle) [illegible] (v.t) to trap [illegible]

Cornet (n) a kind of brass trumpet [illegible]

Cornice (n) projecting portion at the top of walls. [illegible] moulding close to ceiling.

Corolla (n) flower petals together [illegible] the inner whorl of a flower.

Corollary (n) inference, result; supplement. [illegible] inference or deduction from a truth or proposition. an inference from facts [illegible]

Corona (n) a coloured ring of light round the sun or moon [illegible]

Coronach (n) a funeral dirge

Coronal (n) a small crown, circlet [illegible]

Coronation (n) crowning ceremony [illegible] crowning of a monarch

Coroner (n) an officer holding enquiry over the dead body of a person who met with unnatural death [illegible] one who presides over inquests} an official authorised to look into the cause of unnatural death.

Coronet (n) small crown [illegible]

Corporal (a) relating to the body. [illegible] having a body, physical, material (n) a petty army official.

Corporate (v.t) unite in a body [illegible] united into a body to act as an individual [illegible] working together as one. [illegible]

Corporation (n) a lawful society acting as one [illegible] a city council [illegible]

Corporeal (a) having a body, material & not spiritual, [illegible] a corporate body

Corps (n) a body of troops or soldiers [illegible]

Corpse (n) a human dead body [illegible]

Corpulence (n) fatness & stoutness. obesity [illegible] fleshiness of body [illegible]

Corpulent (a) fat, stout [illegible] fleshy)

Corpus (n) body [illegible] dead body. [illegible]

Corpuscle (n) minute particle, very small organism, matter in blood [illegible]

Corpuscular (a) [illegible] relating to corpuscles

Corral (n) a pen for live stock, an enclosure for catching animals. (v.t) surround.

Correct (a) right, not wrong. [illegible] exact, accurate [illegible] make right or accurate [illegible] mark mistakes in writing or set them right. [illegible] [illegible]

Correction (n) act of correcting. [illegible], punishment [illegible] [illegible]

Correctitude (n) correctness of conduct [illegible] [illegible] ([illegible])

Corrective (n) that which corrects a restorative medicine [illegible] [illegible]. (a) counteracting [illegible], Correctness (n) exactness, accuracy [illegible]. [illegible].

Corrector (n) critic [illegible]. Censor [illegible].

Correlate (v.t) bring into mutual relation. [illegible] [illegible] act of relation between [illegible] by mutually akin

Correlated (a) related mutually [illegible] [illegible]. [illegible] [illegible]

Correlation (n) mutual relation [illegible].

Correlative (n) a person or thing related to another person or thing. [illegible] [illegible]. (a) having mutual relation [illegible]

Correspond (v.i) keep communication by writing letters etc. [illegible] [illegible]. be equal to or similar [illegible] [illegible] agree with. exchange letters

Correspondence (n) interchange of letters [illegible]. similarity [illegible]. [illegible] written letters

Correspondent (n) a writer [illegible]. who writes to papers or periodicals [illegible].

[illegible] Corresponding [illegible].

Corresponding (a) similar, answering [illegible].

Corridor (n) a passage hall leading to rooms in a building. [illegible], [illegible] a passage way.

Corrigendum (n) list of mistakes in a book pointed out for correction [illegible] (pl) Corrigenda)

Corrigent (n) substance added to a medicine to modify its action. [illegible]

Corrigible (a) capable of being corrected [illegible]

Corroborate (v.t) strengthen, confirm [illegible]. [illegible]

Corroboration (n) confirmation, strengthening. [illegible], [illegible]

Corroborating (a) strengthening [illegible].

Corrode (v.t) eat away or wear away by slow chemical action, rust [illegible] [illegible]

Corrosive (a) having the quality of corrosion [illegible]

Corrosion (n) rusting, wearing away [illegible] [illegible]. [illegible] [illegible]

Corrugate (v.i & t) make or form wave like folds or creases. [illegible] [illegible] draw into folds. [illegible]

~~Corrodation (n) corroding action [illegible]~~

Corrugation (n) wave like folds. [illegible], [illegible].

Corrupt (v.t) make impure [illegible] [illegible] lead astray [illegible]. [illegible]. bribe [illegible] [illegible] impure [illegible] [illegible]. defile, to bribe Corruptible [illegible] perishable.

Corruption (n) impure [illegible] [illegible]. decay [illegible].

Corsage (n) bodice [illegible]

Corsair (n) a pirate, [illegible] a piratical ship [illegible] [illegible]

Corse (n) corpse [illegible].

~~Corset (n) a woman's close fitting jacket~~ [illegible] a close fitting inner bodice, [illegible]

Corselet (n) a protective steel armour for the body [illegible] breastplate [illegible]. a Cuirass

Corset (n) a woman's close fitting jacket [illegible]

~~Cortex (n) covering~~

Cortege (n) procession [illegible] train of attendants. [illegible] formal procession. [illegible]

Cortes (n) Spanish Parliament.

Cortex (n) the outer covering of bark of anything. [illegible], [illegible] grey matter of brain ~~[illegible]~~

Coruscate (v.i.) flash, sparkle [illegible].

Coruscation (n) flash of light [illegible]

Corvette (n) small war vessel.

Cos. (n) abbreviated form of cousin [illegible]

Cose (v.i.) to make oneself happy [illegible]

Cosiness (n) happiness, [illegible] comfort [illegible]

Cosmetic (n) body beautifying substance [illegible] a preparation for the complexion

Cosmetics (n) cream face powder, lipstick etc which beautify the body [illegible]

Cosmos (n)

Cosmic (a) of the universe universal [illegible]

Cosmogonist (n) one who speculates on the origins of the universe [illegible]

Cosmogony (n) the creation of the universe, origin of the universe) science of the formation of the universe [illegible] a poet's creation.

Cosmography (n) science of the world as a whole

Cosmology (n) science of the world as a whole [illegible]

Cosmologist (n) one well versed in the science of the universe [illegible]

Cosmopolitan (n) a world citizen one who is at home everywhere [illegible], a person free from limitation, local or national prejudices. (a) free from limitations. [illegible].

Cosmos (n) the whole world universe [illegible], the physical world [illegible] order [illegible].

Coss (n) a distance of 1 3/4 miles 1 3/4 [illegible]

Cossack (n) a turkish horseman [illegible]

Cossacks (n) trousers

Cosset (v.t) fondle, treat kindly, pet [illegible] (n) pet child [illegible], pet lamb. a hand reared lamb.

Cost (n) amount paid to get a thing, price [illegible] amount spent in making a thing [illegible] expense) (pl) court expenses in conducting a law suit [illegible].

Costa (n) animal rib [illegible] on the side of the body

Costage (n) expense [illegible]

Costal (a) of the ribs [illegible] pertaining to the ribs

Costard (n) a large kind of apple. [illegible]

Costate (a) ribbed, [illegible]

Coster (n) fruit seller [illegible]
Costermonger (n) an itinerant vendor of vegetables.

Costive (a) constipated [illegible]

Costiveness (n) constipation [illegible]

Costly (a) high priced, of great value [illegible], expensive [illegible]

Costume (n) dress [illegible].

Cosy (a) comfortable, happy [illegible] snug, a teapot cover.

Cot (n) bed-stead [illegible] a small cottage

Coterie (n) a set of people who join together to work for a special purpose. [illegible] a group of people having similar aims

Coterminous (a) having the same boundary [illegible] adjoining [illegible]

Cottage (n) hut, small house, a small country house [illegible] a small country house.

Cottier (n) a farm worker who, in addition to his pay, has the right to live in a cottage in the farm in which he works.
Cotillion (n) a kind of dance.

Cotton (n) a white downy substance used in making yarn & cloth. [illegible] produce of the cotton plant. cloth (seed leaf) [illegible]
Cotyledon (n) [illegible]

Couch (v.i) recline, lie flat for sleeping. [illegible] hide [illegible] stoop down. [illegible] hide [illegible]. lie in readiness to jump. [illegible]
(n) a soft bed or seat for reclining or lying down [illegible]

Cough (v.i) send out air from throat with effort & noise. [illegible] expulsion of air from throat with noise & effort [illegible]
[illegible] which throw [illegible]

Could (v) was able.

Coulee (n) lava-flow

Council (n) an assembly for consultation [illegible] a deliberative body.

Councillor (n) member of a council. [illegible]

Counsel (n) advice [illegible] a legal adviser or advocate or [illegible] [illegible]

Counsellor (n) adviser [illegible]

Count (v.t) [illegible] title of a foreign noble [illegible] esteem, a foreign title;

Countenance (n) face [illegible] favour expression [illegible] (v.t) to favour [illegible]

Counter (a) opposed [illegible] against [illegible] shop table [illegible] (v.t) attack [illegible]
(n) a table on which customers are served in a bank, or shop or shop.. a shop table.

Counteract (v.t) destroy or check the effect of [illegible] go against.

Counterbalance (v.t) oppose with an equal force or weight [illegible]

Counterfeit (a) false [illegible] made in imitation of another with a view to cheat
(C. [illegible]) [illegible]
[illegible] (n) [illegible] false

Counterfoil (n) complementary portion of anything. [illegible]

Countermand (v.t) cancel or recall previous order [illegible] revoke.
Countermark (n) marking [illegible] goods

Counterpane (n) bed cover [illegible] a bed covering.

Counterpart (n) duplicate, opposite part [illegible] corresponding [illegible] equally to another [illegible]

Countersign (v.t) sign with an additional signature. attest [illegible] an authorising mark. watchword

Countess (n) wife or widow of a Count or earl Countless (a) very many, that cannot be counted. [illegible] innumerable.

County (n) a large tract of land [illegible] rural part [illegible] a kingdom. [illegible] any land, a rural region.

Countryman (n) one who lives out of the town. [illegible] one of the same country as another [illegible]

County (n) a political division in England. a shire.

Coup (n) a sudden successful stroke. [illegible]

Coupe (n) a kind of vehicle [illegible]. a compartment in a railway with seat only on one side, a motor car with only two seats.

Couple (n) two, pair, [illegible] husband and wife [illegible]. (v.t) join together [illegible] marry [illegible]

Coupling (n) conjunction. connection

Couplet (n) a verse of two lines [illegible]

Coupon (n) a certificate to be cut off.

Courage (n) boldness or [illegible] bravery.

Courageous (a) bold [illegible]

Courageously (adv) boldly [illegible]

Courier (n) runner [illegible] a special messenger [illegible]

Course (n) way, method, route. [illegible] series of [illegible]. (v.t) to chase, pursue, hunt, [illegible] to run. progress, career, race ground

Coursing (n) hunting on a race ground

Courser (n) swift horse, race horse, war horse [illegible]

Court (n) palace [illegible] and gen- retinue [illegible] an enclosed place (a hall of justice) a place where law cases are heard [illegible]. (v.t) to make love to [illegible]

Courteous (a) good mannered [illegible] polite [illegible] elegant manners

Courtesan (n) a [illegible]

Courtesy (n) polite [illegible] civility

Courtier (n) a person who attends at a King's court [illegible] flatterer [illegible] a frequenter of palace.

Courtly (a) dignified [illegible] elegant.

Courtship (n) wooing [illegible]

Courtyard (n) open space with wall or buildings all round [illegible]

Cousin (n) uncle's or aunt's child. [illegible], son or daughter of an uncle or aunt.

Cove (n) a cavern among rocks [illegible] a recess [illegible], a small inlet of the sea [illegible]

Covenant (n) a solemn agreement [illegible]

Cover (n) a lid [illegible] wrapper a retreat for game. [illegible] pretension [illegible] protection [illegible]. (v.t) wrap [illegible], protect [illegible] conceal, xx Cowcatcher (n) a frame [illegible] front of a [illegible] engine to remove obstacles on the way.

KJ. Covering (n) case, sheath, wrapper, [illegible].

Covinous (a) a deep cunning.

Covert (a) secret [illegible].

Covertness (n) hidden, concealed.

Covet (v.t) desire greatly to have [illegible].

Covetous (a) greatly desirous [illegible] avaricious [illegible].

Covetousness (n) avariciousness. [illegible], [illegible] eager desire.

Covey (n) a group of birds, [illegible] [illegible]. a brood of game.

Cow (n) mature female of any animal of the ox family, [illegible]. (v.t) frighten [illegible]

Cowitch — [illegible]. (Cowage)

Cowboy (n) a man in charge of cattle [illegible] ([illegible])

~~Cowshed (n) an enclosure for cattle [illegible], [illegible]~~

Coward (n) one who cannot control his fear, a timid fellow. [illegible], [illegible] one lacking in courage.

Cowardice (n) want of boldness, timidity [illegible].

Cowardly (a) timid [illegible] faint hearted xx Cowardice [illegible] in mind

Cower (v.i) crouch from fear [illegible] shrink back from fear, sink down [illegible]

Cowl (n) a monk's cap, a loose gown with hood for the head, chimney cap. a water tube with two ears.

x Cowrie (Cowry) a kind of seashell [illegible].

x Cowpox disease on teats of cows communicable to human beings

[illegible] (a) an [illegible] for cattle by vaccination [illegible]

x Coxcomb (n) a vain showy fellow [illegible], [illegible] a fop.

Coxswain (n) one who steers a rowing boat [illegible], [illegible]. an officer in charge of a boat & crew.

Coy (a) shy, touchy [illegible] modest [illegible].

Coyness (n) shyness [illegible], [illegible] modesty [illegible].

Coz (n) short form of Cousin

Cozen (v.t) to cheat [illegible]

Cozenage (n) fraud in cheating

Cozy (a) happy, comfortable. [illegible].

Crab (n) a hard shelled water creature used for food [illegible], a sign in the Zodiac [illegible]. a kind of apple.

Crabbed (a) ill-tempered, irritable [illegible] ill-natured, harsh.

Crack (n) break [illegible] a narrow opening, [illegible] a chasm [illegible] a crazy fellow [illegible]. (v.t) break [illegible] split [illegible] emit a sharp sound.

Cracker (n) exploding fire work [illegible] a kind of biscuit

Crackbrained (a) crazy [illegible]

Crackle (v.i) make snapping sound [illegible].

Cradle (n) a small rocking bed for infants [illegible] place of origin [illegible] a frame [illegible]

Craft (n) skilled work [illegible] any kind of ship. [illegible], cunning [illegible]

Craftsman (n) a skilled workman [illegible] [illegible]

Crafty (a) cunning [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] deceitful

Crag (n) high steep rock. [illegible] [illegible] a high steep rock

Cragged (a) rocky [illegible]

Cram (v.t) overfill, stuff into, to eat greedily [illegible] eat greedily [illegible] learn anything greedily without understanding [illegible] [illegible]

Cramp (n) sudden painful tightening of muscles, [illegible] [illegible] a spasm. (v.t) hinder [illegible] squeeze in [illegible] [illegible] crowd in a small place. to hinder, to confine.

Crane (n) a water bird with long neck, beak & leg [illegible], a machine for lifting heavy weights [illegible] an apparatus [illegible] (v.i) stretch out neck. [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]

Cranial (a) pertaining to the skull. [illegible]

Cranium (n) bones enclosing the brain [illegible]. The skull [illegible]

Crank (n) a bent handle for starting a machine [illegible]. a crook or bend. a man of queer views, eccentric. [illegible] whimsical

Cranky (a) full of whims [illegible]

Cranny (n) a small crack [illegible], [illegible] a chink, fissure.

Crape (n) black, wrinkled silk fabric. a kind of black cloth used for mourning wear

Craped (a) crimpled. [illegible]

Crash (n) noise of breaking [illegible]. shock of two things meeting [illegible]. failure [illegible] (in business) (v) to dash into

Crash coarse strong linen

Crass (a) stupid [illegible]. coarse. thick [illegible]

Crate (n) a packing case — frame for ~~packing~~ goods to be transported. [illegible] a wicker case.

Crater (n) mouth of a volcano [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] Crater [illegible]

Cravat (n) piece of cloth to be worn round the neck [illegible] scarf. [illegible]

Crave (v.t) beg, request [illegible] [illegible] desire greatly [illegible] to ask for, to seek

Craven (a) cowardly, timid [illegible]. (n) a timid fellow [illegible] a coward

Craving (n) great desire [illegible] [illegible]

Craw (n) first stomach of birds [illegible] [illegible] the crop of birds

Crawfish (n) crayfish, a shellfish resembling lobster. [illegible]

Crawl (v.i) move along the ground on hands, on feet or on belly. creep [illegible] walk slowly [illegible]

Crayon (n) differently coloured chalk stick. [illegible] a chalk pencil for drawing

165

Craze (n) mental derangement [illegible]. something popular for a short time. a fashion [illegible],
(v) to confuse, [illegible] mania, popular fashion short enthusiasm, [illegible]

craziness (n) wildness
Crazy (a) imbecile, deranged in mind [illegible], [illegible]

Creak (v) harsh grating sound [illegible]: [illegible]

Cream (n) oily or fatty part of milk. [illegible]. best part of anything. [illegible]. a kind of toilet. [illegible] light yellow colour, oily substance formed on milk.

Creamery (n) a cream factory [illegible] a place where milk, cream butter etc are sold [illegible]

Crease (n) line made by folding [illegible], [illegible] mark made by folding.

Create (v.t) bring into existence out of nothing. originate [illegible] produce [illegible]

Creation (n) act of creating or the things created. [illegible] [illegible] formation.

Creator (n) one who creates. the Supreme being. [illegible]. [illegible]

Creature (n) living thing created [illegible].

Creche (n) a public nursery for infants whose mothers are out at work [illegible] [illegible]

Credence (n) belief, faith [illegible]

Credentials (n) introductory letters or papers showing the identity of a person. letters of personal testimony.

Credible (a) that can be believed [illegible].

Credit (n) belief. trust. esteem. [illegible] good name [illegible]. fame [illegible] getting things on promise to pay later on. [illegible]

Creditable (a) worthy of praise. [illegible]. trustworthy [illegible]

Creditor (n) person to whom money is owed [illegible]. [illegible] and, [illegible] person to whom one owes one to whom money is owed money.

Credo (n) creed. [illegible], [illegible]

× Credulity (n)
Credulous (a) disposed to believe without on insufficient reasons, easy of belief, [illegible]
× credulity (n) disposition to believe easily. [illegible]

Creed (n) system of belief. [illegible] [illegible], [illegible]

Creek (n) a small stream [illegible]. a narrow inlet of the sea. [illegible] [illegible]. a small stream or inlet.

~~Creep (v.i)~~

Creel (n) a fisherman's basket [illegible] [illegible]

Creep (v.i) to crawl, move along the ground on belly or on hands & feet [illegible] walk along [illegible]

Creeper (n) creeping plant [illegible]. [illegible] a climbing plant. [illegible]

~~Cremate (v.t)~~

Creepy (a) having a creeping sensation [illegible].

Cremate (V.t)

Cre~~mation~~mate (v.t.) burn up dead body to ashes. [illegible] burning of the dead

Cremation (n) act of cremating [illegible] burning of the dead

Cremation ground
Crematorium (n) place for cremating [illegible] grave yard.

Crenated (a) notched [illegible] scalloped. indented.

Creosote (n) an oily substance from wood tar or coal tar used as an antiseptic & preservative. a kind of [illegible] oil from tar. an oily tar used to keep wood from rotting.

Crescent (n) increasing or growing moon. curve of the moon [illegible] any curved thing [illegible] (a) curved, [illegible] shaped like the new moon.

Crescive (a) increasing. [illegible]

Cress (n) a plant with slight pungent taste used in making salad. [illegible]

Crest (n) top [illegible]. badge [illegible]

X Cresset (n) a light in a basket on pole to be used as beacon [illegible] an iron vessel for holding fire

Crevasse (n) a crack in deep ice. [illegible]

Crevice (n) a narrow opening [illegible] a crack

Crew (n) a group of company in a particular job, gang. [illegible]

Crib (n) a receptacle for fodder, manger. [illegible], a child's small enclosed bed. [illegible] a cottage. [illegible] (v) [illegible]

Cribbage (n) a card game.

Crick (n) a sharp pain in the neck [illegible] a spasm.

Cricket (n) an insect which produces chirping sound by rubbing together its wings. [illegible] a game played with bats, ball & wickets between two sides each side having 11 players. a game

Cricketer (n) a cricket player

Crier (n) one making public ~~notices~~. announcement by beating drums etc [illegible] announcer in a court of law. [illegible]

Crime (n) unlawful action [illegible] offence against the law.

Criminal (n) lawbreaker, one guilty of a crime. [illegible] (a) unlawful [illegible] guilty. pertaining to crime. one guilty of a crime

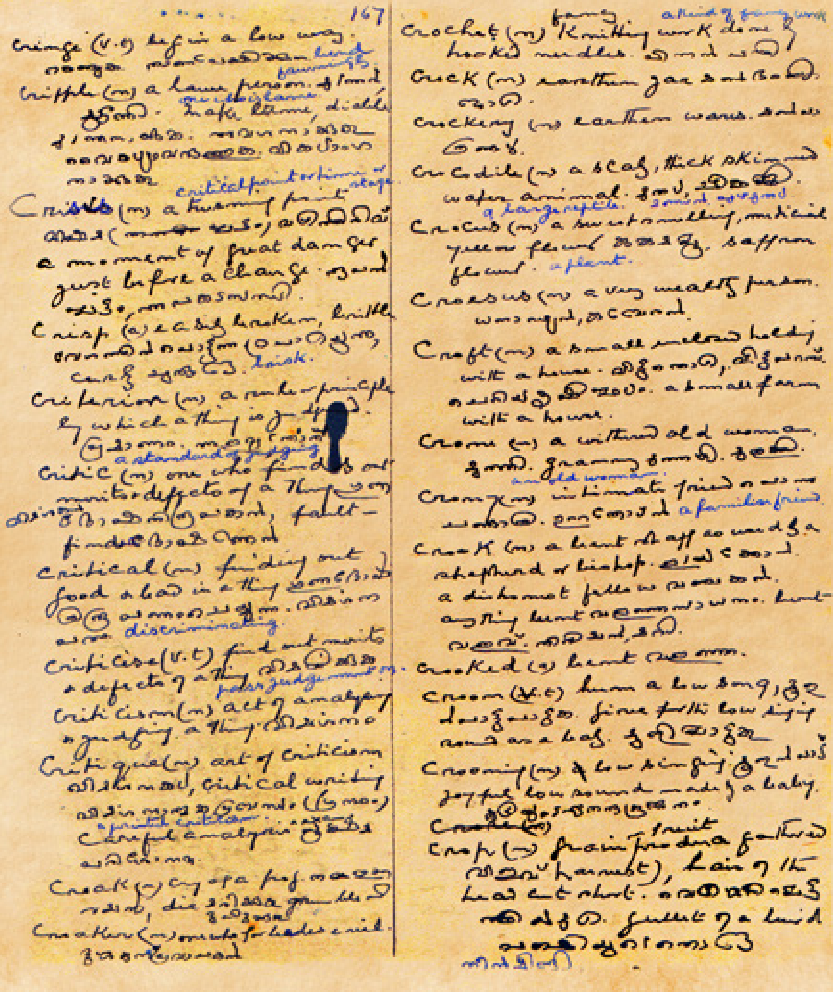
Criminate (v.t.) prove guilty accuse of a crime [illegible]

Criminology (n) science of crime [illegible]

Crimp (a) brittle, crisp [illegible] (v.t.) make into folds or curves [illegible]

Crimple (v.t.) curl [illegible]

Crimson (a) deep red [illegible] deep red colour, [illegible]



167

Cringe (v.i) bow in a low way. [illegible] bend fawningly

Cripple (n) a lame person. [illegible] one who is lame [illegible]. to make lame, disable [illegible]

Crisis (n) a turning point critical point or time or stage [illegible] a moment of great danger just before a change. [illegible]

Crisp (a) easily broken, brittle [illegible] brisk.

Criterion (n) a rule or principle by which a thing is judged. [illegible] a standard of judging

Critic (n) one who finds out merits or defects of a thing [illegible], fault-finder [illegible]

Critical (a) finding out good and bad in a thing [illegible] discriminating.

Criticise (v.t) find out merits & defects of a thing [illegible] pass judgement on.

Criticism (n) act of analysing & judging a thing. [illegible]

Critique (n) art of criticism [illegible], critical writing [illegible] a printed criticism. careful analysis [illegible]

Croak (n) cry of a frog [illegible], die [illegible] grumble [illegible]

Croaker (n) one who foretells evil. [illegible]

Crochet (n) fancy knitting work done by hooked needles. [illegible] a kind of fancy work

Crock (n) earthen jar and bowl. [illegible]

Crockery (n) earthen wares. [illegible]

Crocodile (n) a scaly, thick skinned water animal. [illegible] a large reptile. [illegible]

Crocus (n) a sweet smelling, medicinal yellow flower [illegible]. saffron flower. a plant.

Croesus (n) a very wealthy person. [illegible]

Croft (n) a small enclosed holding with a house. [illegible]. a small farm with a house.

Crone (n) a withered old woman. [illegible]. granny [illegible]. an old woman.

Crony (n) intimate friend [illegible] a familiar friend.

Crook (n) a bent staff as used by a shepherd or bishop. [illegible] a dishonest fellow [illegible]. bent anything bent [illegible]

Crooked (a) bent [illegible].

Croon (v.t) hum a low song [illegible]. Since forth low singing sound as a baby. [illegible]

Crooning (n) a low singing [illegible] joyful low sound made by a baby. [illegible]

~~Croaker (n)~~

Crop (n) grain produce fruit gathered ([illegible] harvest), hair of the head cut short. [illegible]. gullet of a bird [illegible]

[illegible]

Croquet (n) a kind of game.

Crore (n) one hundred lakhs. [illegible]

Crosier (n) bishop's staff. [illegible]

Cross (n) a frame with an upright & horizontal beam on which criminals were crucified i.e. nailed to death in olden days in Rome. [illegible] the like of this on which Jesus Christ was crucified. [illegible] peevish

(a) angry, [illegible] intersecting. [illegible] bad tempered [illegible] lying across [illegible]

(v.t) pass over, go across [illegible] have sexual connection with [illegible]

Crossbelt (n) a belt from shoulder to opposite hip. [illegible]

Crossbreed (n) born of mixed race. [illegible]

Crosscut (n) a short path [illegible]

Crosseyed (a) having disordered eye making it impossible to look with both eyes, squinting. [illegible]

Crossfertilization [illegible]

Crossing (n) intersection of two ways. [illegible] a place where a river can be crossed.

Crosslegged (a) sitting with one leg over another [illegible]

168 [illegible]

Crossfertilization (n) [illegible] fertilization from one flower by the pollen of another

Crosspurposes (n) conflicting purposes [illegible]

Crossexamine

Crossquestion (v.t) cross—examine. [illegible] question to elicit truth.

Crossroad — [illegible]

Crosswise (ad) across [illegible]

Crossword (n) a puzzle [illegible]

Crotch (n) fork as of a tree [illegible]

Crotchet (n) strange idea or fancy [illegible]. whim [illegible]

Crotchety (a) given to whims or fancies. whimsical faddy

Croton (n) a tropical plant from the seeds of which a strong purgative oil is got. is made. [illegible] croton oil [illegible]

Crouch (v.i) lie close to the ground as if to jump. [illegible] bend low with legs crossed [illegible] cringe [illegible]

Croup (n) a childrens disease a throat disease due to the inflammation of the larynx with hoarse ringing cough. buttock [illegible], hind part [illegible]

Croupier (n) a treasurer at a gambling table. [illegible] an assistant chairman

Crow (n) a large black bird [illegible] the joyful cry of infant [illegible] the cry of the cock.

(v.t) boast [illegible]

Crowd (n) disorderly collection of people [illegible] throng. [illegible]

Crowded (a) full of people [illegible]

Crown (n) royal head dress worn on ceremonial occasions [illegible] top of anything [illegible], [illegible] a coin worth 5 sh.

[illegible]

Crucial (a) critical [illegible] testful. [illegible] severe [illegible]

Crucible (n) a melting pot for metals & other things [illegible]

Crucifix (n) figure of christ on cross. [illegible] a cross, the sacred emblem of the cross.

Crucifixion (n) act of crucifying [illegible]. Severe trial [illegible] death on the cross, the form of a cross.

Crucify (v.t) kill by nailing on a cross. [illegible]

Crude (a) not refined [illegible] rough. [illegible]

Cruel (a) unkind hardhearted [illegible] stern. unhuman [illegible] having no feeling for the suffering of others.

Cruelty (n) hardheartedness [illegible] hardness, brutality.

Cruet (n) a small glass vessel or bottle for salt, pepper or vinegar [illegible] a stand for condiments.

Cruise (v.i) sail about leisurely [illegible]

Cruiser (n) a small warship [illegible]

Crumb (n) small bit of bread or anything, [illegible] fragment.

Crumble (v.t & i) break or fall into small pieces [illegible] decay [illegible]

Crumple (v.t) shrink [illegible] (v.i) Crush [illegible] press together [illegible] to crease or wrinkle.

Crumpled (a) wrinkled [illegible]

Crusade (n) religious war fought by christians with the Muslims for recovery of Jerusalem [illegible] a religious war [illegible] any work of suffering for a noble cause [illegible] a military expedition to the holy land [illegible]

Cruse (n) a small pot, [illegible] an earthen pot.

Crush (v) squeeze, press with [illegible] break by pressure, to ruin. (n) a sweet drink of fruit juice. [illegible]

Crust (n) hard outer covering of anything. [illegible] outer covering

[illegible]

Crutch (n) a stick or contrivance used by a lame man to walk [illegible] a support for a lame man.

Crux (n) the most difficult part of a question or problem [illegible] difficult point. a cross [illegible]

Cry (v.i) shed tears [illegible] weep, utter loudly [illegible] shout [illegible]

Crypt (n) a small underground chapel cell [illegible] (hidden, secret)

Cryptic (a) having a hidden meaning [illegible] mysterious [illegible]

Cryptical (a) hidden [illegible]

cryptography secret writing

Crystal (n) a superior kind of glass [illegible] particle with plain faces, as form taken by certain bodies while solidifying [illegible] (a) clear [illegible] glassy transparent

Crystalline (a) transparent, pure

Crystallize (v.i) form into crystals.

170

crystallisation (n) [illegible]

Cub (n) the young of certain beasts like tiger, wolf etc

Cube (n) a solid with six equal square faces [illegible]. a solid square.
(geom) [illegible] (n) [illegible] (maths) [illegible]

Cubeb (n) dried berry of a plant of the pepper family used in medicine [illegible]
Cubeb root [illegible]

Cubicle (n) part of a large room partitioned off for a special purpose.

Cubit (n) a measure of 18 inches [illegible] an ancient measure.

Cuckold (n) husband of an unchaste wife. [illegible]
a man deceived by his wife

Cuckoo (n) a bird which makes a sound as its name. [illegible]

Cucumber (n) a fleshy green vegetable of the gourd family [illegible] an oblong green fruit

Cud (n) food brought back from the stomach of certain animals a second time for chewing [illegible] food returned by ruminants

Cuddam (n)

Cuddle (v.t) hug, embrace [illegible].

Cuddle (Cuddy) a donkey. [illegible], a stupid person [illegible]

Cudgel (n) a short thick stick [illegible] a club [illegible]. (v.t) beat [illegible] a staff.

Cue (n) a hint, catchword [illegible] a rod used in billiards.
the tail

Cuff (n) the end of the sleeve, band of cloth attached to the end of the sleeve [illegible]. wrist covering.
(v) to strike —

(v.t) strike with the fist. [illegible]

Cuirass (n) armour protecting chest & back [illegible] a breast covering.

Cuisine (n) kitchen [illegible].
cooking department

Culinary (a) relating to cooking [illegible]

Cull (v.t) to pick out, select [illegible], gather [illegible]
Cullender [illegible] strainer [illegible]

Cullion (n) mean fellow, a wretch

Culm (n) stalk of grass or [illegible] coal-dust [illegible]
Culm [illegible]

Culmen (n) highest point [illegible].

Culminate (v.t) end [illegible] reach the highest point [illegible]. get to the extreme point

Culmination (n) highest point. [illegible]

Culpable (a) criminal [illegible]. worthy of punishment punishable [illegible].
guilty [illegible]

Culprit (n) wrong doer [illegible] offender [illegible] criminal. one who is accused

Cult (n) a system of religious belief or worship. [illegible] a special religious sect [illegible]

Cultivable (a) arable, that can be cultivated [illegible]

Cultivate (v.t) carry on cultivation [illegible] grow [illegible] improve, refine [illegible]

Cultivation (n) act of cultivating [illegible] improvement, refinement [illegible]

Culture (n) mental development [illegible] cultivation [illegible] Training [illegible] refinement, learning

Cultured (a) civilized [illegible]

Culver (n) dove, pigeon.

Culverin (n) a very large kind of cannon.

Culvert (n) a drain under a road or railway [illegible] a covered water channel

Cum (prep) with, along, including [illegible]

Cumbent (a) reclining, lying down. [illegible]

Cumber (v.t) hinder, obstruct [illegible] obstruct Cumbersome (a) unwieldy [illegible] burdensome.

Cumbrous (a) very heavy, burdensome. [illegible]

Cumin (Cummin) (fruit) The seed of the cumin plant used as a cure for wind trouble [illegible] an umbelliferous plant

Cummerbund (n) a waist band or sash [illegible]

Cumulate (v.t) heap up or together. [illegible] accumulate.

X Cumulative (a) increasing by addition. regularly increasing. [illegible]

X Cumulation (n) heaping up, accumulation. [illegible]

Cumulus (n) } heap [illegible]
Cumulous } heaped up cloud mass. [illegible]

Cuneiform (a) wedge-shaped. [illegible] (2) writing of some old countries in which the characters were shaped like wedge.

Cunning (a) skilful, clever, crafty. [illegible] deceitful. [illegible]

X Cunningness (n) skill [illegible] deceit. [illegible]

X Cunningly (a) skilfully [illegible] deceitfully. [illegible]

Cup (n) a drinking vessel with a handle [illegible] a prize cup given to a winner in a game, race. [illegible]

Cupboard (n) a place for keeping dishes, food etc. [illegible] a small shelved closet for keeping dishes, vessels etc. [illegible]

Cupel (n) a small vessel used by a goldsmith in assaying precious metals. [illegible]

Cupid (n) Roman god of love [illegible]

Cupidity (n) lust. [illegible] greed [illegible]

a spherical top of a building a spherical vault or concave ceiling.

Cupola (n) a small round top on the top of a building. dome, ~~a roof top-shaped~~ the top of a roof shaped like half a sphere.

Cupriferous (a) producing copper or yielding [illegible]

Cuprum (n) copper [illegible], [illegible]

Cupreous (a) made of copper [illegible] [illegible]. full of copper [illegible]

Cur (n) a dog of low breed, a common dog [illegible], a mean fellow [illegible] a [illegible] fellow

Curable (a) that can be cured, remediable healable [illegible]

Curacy (n) district under a curate or the benefice of a curate. [illegible] the benefit of a curate

Curate (n) assistant clergyman [illegible] an under clergyman

Curative (a) helping or tending to cure. [illegible] (n) a medicine that cures [illegible]

Curator (n) one in charge of a museum or art gallery. [illegible]

a constriction
Curb (v.t) control [illegible] check. hold in check] (n) strap tied to a bit to check the speed of a horse [illegible].

Curcuma (n) turmeric, a yellow root of a plant of the ginger family.

Curd (n) thickened sour milk [illegible]

Curdle (v.i) ~~turn~~ change into curd, [illegible]. thicken become thick [illegible] coagulate. [illegible] a remedy; restore to health.

Cure (v.t) to heal [illegible] (the remedy) bring back to health] [illegible]

172 Curative (a) tending to cure.
Cure (n) a medicine. [illegible] medical treatment [illegible]

Curette (n) a surgeon's scraping instrument [illegible]

Curfew (n) signal to keep ~~[illegible]~~ for people to remain in houses. [illegible] or put out light or cover lights at [illegible] after a fixed time at night. [illegible] night bell [illegible] all lights.

Curio (n) a rare or strange thing or work of art. [illegible]

x Curious (a) strange, rare uncommon [illegible], eager to know [illegible]

x Curiosity (n) a rare thing. unusual [illegible] eagerness to know. inquisitiveness [illegible] strong desire to find out or know [illegible]

Curioist (n) a curio collector.

Curl (n) ringlet. [illegible] spiral coil [illegible], (v.t) make into ringlets. [illegible]

Curlew (n) a wading bird.

Curly (a) having curls [illegible]

Curmudgeon (n) an ill-disposed person.

Currant (n) dried seedless grapes [illegible] a small [illegible]. ([illegible]) a kind of black dried grapes Currency (n) money in actual use in a country [illegible] coinage [illegible] circulation [illegible] money of a country in actual use.

Current (a) now in use [illegible] (n) strong flow of water or air. [illegible] a stream Curriculum (n) Course or plan of study [illegible].

Curry (n) a peppery sauce condiment, a spiced preparation to give relish to food. [illegible]

(v.t) dress leather denounce

Curse (v.t) to call evil on, [illegible] execrate [illegible] imprecation of evil. [illegible] the invocation of evil.

Cursed (a) detestable [illegible] abominable, hateful despicable.

Cursive (a) flowing (as of writing) [illegible] running [illegible]

Cursory (a) hasty, not deep [illegible] superficial [illegible]

Curt (a) brief, short [illegible]

Curtail (v.t) cut short [illegible]

Curtailment (n) shortening [illegible]

Curtain (n) a cloth suspended as a screen [illegible] a covering drapery.

Curtilage (n) a house yard of [illegible]

[illegible]

Curvature (n) bent form. [illegible], a bending.

Curve (v.t) bend [illegible] (n) [illegible]

Curvet (n) light leap of a horse [illegible] a curving leaping movement of a horse.

~~Cushion (n)~~

Cuscus (n) sweet smelling fibrous root of a kind of grass. [illegible]

Cushion (n) a small case filled with soft stuff to be used as a support, pillow or comfortable seat. [illegible] a pillow or soft pad

Cushy (a) Comfortable [illegible]

173.

Cusp (n) a point. peak [illegible] horn of the moon. [illegible], meeting point of two curved lines.

Custard (n) a mixture sweetened & flavoured mixture of milk and eggs [illegible] a baked compound of milk & eggs.

Custard apple (n) a kind of apple [illegible], sweet apple, [illegible]

Custodian (n) guardian, keeper [illegible]

Custody (n) care [illegible], arrest [illegible] a keeping in charge imprisonment.

Custom (n) Common usage [illegible], habit [illegible], use

Customary (a) usual habitual according to usage. [illegible]

Customer (n) regular purchaser at a shop [illegible] a purchaser.

Customs (n) taxes on goods or imports coming into a country. [illegible] duties on exports or imports.

Custom house (n) a place for collection of import duties [illegible] a building where customs are collected pertaining to [illegible]

Cut (v.t) divide [illegible] (n) blow [illegible]

Cutaneous (a) pertaining to the skin [illegible]

~~Cute (a) clever and [illegible]~~

Cutaneous (a) [illegible] pertaining to the skin [illegible]

Cute (a) clever [illegible] Shrewd

Cuticle (n) superficial or outer skin [illegible] top skin. [illegible] top thin skin on the body cutis (n) skin under epidermis [illegible] cutlass (n) a short curved cutting sword [illegible] a broad sword cutler (n) dealer or maker of cutting things. [illegible] one who deals in cutlery.

cutlery (n) cutting things in general [illegible] cutlet (n) a slice of fried meat [illegible] a piece of meat cut for cooking.

cutter (n) a small boat attached to a warship. [illegible] a small ship cutting (n) piece cut out [illegible]

Cuttle bone [illegible]

cuttlefish (n) a fish which throws out a black liquid when followed [illegible] (Sepia) (Sepia) cuttlebone (n) shell of the cuttle used for burnishing [illegible] cycle (n) bicycle. [illegible] a long period of time [illegible] a revolving period of time round of time [illegible] cyclic (a) happening again and again in cycles [illegible]

cyclist (n) one who rides a cycle [illegible]

Sycloid (a) a figure like a cycle.

cyclone (n) strong wind blowing in circular fashion [illegible] a rotary storm cyclopaedia (n) a book articles on varied subjects [illegible] a work of general information

Cyclopaedia (n) a work containing information in all departments of knowledge arranged alphabetically.

cyclopean (cyclopic) (a) very big, gigantic. [illegible]

Cyclops (n) fabled giants who had only one eye & that in the middle of the eye forehead cyclostyle (n) an apparatus for taking many copies of a writing with the help of stencil paper & pencil [illegible] cygnet (n) a young swan [illegible] cylinder (n) a roller shaped vessel solid or hollow thing [illegible] a thing having the form of a roller [illegible] a circular body of equal diameter.

cymbals (n) a pair of brass disks which when struck together make musical sound [illegible] a clashing musical instrument.

cynic (n) a person who does not believe in the goodness of people. one who sees only evil in people [illegible] man who does not believe in goodness in people [illegible] a morose person

Cynical (a) like or of a cynic. surly, satirical, pessimistic cynicism (n) fault finding finding no good in any person or thing [illegible] heartlessness.

cynosure (n) an object or person of attraction [illegible] that which attracts attention cypher (n) zero [illegible]. [illegible] cypress (n) a kind of cone bearing tree with hard wood & dark green leaves. an evergreen tree cyst (n) a closed sack with diseased matter formed in animal tissue, a bag of morbid matter in animal bodies.

cystitis (n) inflammation of bladder. [illegible]

[illegible]

czar (n) emperor of old Russia – (fem) czarina

D

Dab (v.t) hit lightly, pat [illegible] strike lightly paint with [illegible] (n) a clever person [illegible].

Dabble (v.i) (t) play in water, [illegible] meddle with.
[illegible] (v.t) sprinkle.
[illegible] moisten [illegible]

Dace (n) a small river fish.

Dacoit (n) an Indian robber [illegible] one of a gang of Indian Robbers.

Dacoity (n) gang robbery [illegible]

Dad: (n) father a child's word for father daddle (v.i) walk unsteadily as a child. [illegible] daffodil (n) a kind of yellow flower [illegible] of the lily order.

daff (n) a stupid fellow [illegible] daft (a) silly [illegible]. crazy.

dagger (n) a short stabbing sword. [illegible] dahlia (n) a flowering garden plant.

daily (a & ad) happening every day [illegible] every day [illegible] (n) a news paper published every day [illegible] daintily (ad) nicely, dainty (a) tasteful [illegible]. [illegible]

(n) a sweet thing. [illegible]
(a) delicate, pleasing.

dairy (n) a company selling milk and milk products [illegible] a place where milk is kept & converted into butter cheese etc [illegible] dairy work (n) [illegible] (dairying, farming) [illegible] dais (n) a raised platform for seat at the end of a hall. [illegible]

[illegible]

dak (n) mail post [illegible]

dak bungalow (n) a rest house for travellers. [illegible] dal (dhal) (n) split pulse [illegible] dalbergia [illegible]

dale (n) low land between two hills [illegible], a valley through which a river flows dalliance (n) amusing, sporting, amorous [illegible] trifling.

dally (v.i) play, amuse, [illegible] (v.t) waste time, lose time [illegible] caress.

dam (n) a barrier built to check water flow, confined water. [illegible] mother (of animals) damage (n) harm, injury, loss. [illegible] damages (n) money claimed or paid for loss or injury. [illegible] damask (n) a figured fabric.

dame (n) a noble or titled woman [illegible]. matron, lady dammar (n) resin used in making varnish, got from conifers. [illegible] damn (v.t) condemn, sentence to everlasting punishment. [illegible] damnable (a) fit to be condemned [illegible] damnation (n) condemnation [illegible]